NC General Education Judging Criteria

Criteria for Candidate Identification and Nomination:

Public School Units will use the following general guiding principles to develop a pool of U.S. Presidential Scholars in General Education nominees.

General Guiding Principles:

- Academic Rigor
- Involvement and Service (in school and community)
- Leadership and Problem Solving
- Character and Perseverance

Additionally, the U.S. Department of Education looks at test scores in each of the states/jurisdictions. For each examinee, the Evidence-Based Reading and Writing (ERW) and Math SAT score is compared to the ACT English, Reading and Math score. Each student's highest test score (in a single test administration) is identified and duplicates and/or lower scores are dropped.

NCDPI Specific Scoring Guidelines:

Academic Rigor based on high proficiency and achievement that is reflected in the State and District's academic assessments as demonstrated by:

- ✓ Maintaining an overall grade point average of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale (unweighted).
- ✓ Earning a class rank of 20 % or higher.
- ✓ Scoring at least a 1010 on the SAT or an 18 on the ACT

Involvement and Service in School and Community as demonstrated by:

- ✓ Providing a list of activities which include active participation. (These activities may include jobs that are paid and/or unpaid, extracurriculars, hobbies, and service to school AND community.)
- ✓ Maintaining commitment to school and community-based activities throughout high school.
- ✓ Holding leadership positions in listed school and community-based activities.

Leadership and Problem Solving as demonstrated by one or more of the following:

- ✓ Demonstrating leadership characteristics through the ability to identify and find a solution to a problem and/or create something of value.
- ✓ Providing a solution to a real-world problem (e.g., developed an electric car that goes faster than any before).
- ✓ Developing a new product/good or service (e.g., development of an app).

Character and Perseverance as demonstrated by:

- ✓ Exemplifying positive character traits.
- ✓ Persevering when confronted with obstacles.
