I. Old Business (6:32 – Present: Laura Cook, Tom Cook, Donna Rogers, Matthew Tilley, Kurt Richter, Kevin Primus, Mary Margaret Kantor)

A. Introductions (5 min.)

B. Laura Cook- Review: The Paideia Academy Mission Statement, Vision and Proposed Purposes (3 min.) Laura shared that the Mission statement had been revised to meet the application requirement (under 35 words). Also, the phrase “earned success” had been added. Noted in the vision is the three columns of instruction imbedded in Adler’s Paideia philosophy.

C. Tom Cook- Status on Charter application submission Sept. 15 (3 min.). The submission for the charter application is Sept. 16. Tom explained that in the process of writing the application, it consistently asks for goals that drive what happens in a school as well as showing how growth and depth of learning will be assessed. He stated that as a Paideia school “pragmatism with purpose” is a theme that runs throughout the application.

Tom also encouraged board members to consider their individual responsibility and role on the board in order to move forward with the application as naming officers is required for submission.

II. New Business

A. Matthew Tilley - Articles of Incorporation/501(c)3 Tax Exemption/Board Governance (10 - 15 minutes) *Needed to be filed with Sec. of State by application submission.

Matthew shared with the group that his firm will draw up the incorporation papers for The Paideia Academy pro-bono. Ashely Durbin will be drawing up the papers and sitting on the board as legal counsel.

Matthew explained incorporating The Paideia Academy with the Secretary of State. The Paideia Academy will be responsible for paying the necessary fees for filing. Laura Cook will be listed as the Incorporator for The Paideia Academy.

Tax exempt status will be filed but takes longer with the federal government. The Office of Charter Schools allows up to 24 months to obtain tax-exemption once application has been submitted. Fundraising may begin, however, once papers are filed.

Incorporation By-Laws will function as The Paideia Academy board by-laws. The by-laws also need to designate committees as suggested in the agenda.

Matthew suggested focusing on the strategic plan including the business plan for the school as the business plan is the more difficult aspect of writing the charter. He suggested that Donna assist with that portion of the application as she is knowledgeable and experienced in the area.
Matthew also suggested searching for a commercial real estate broker that will assist in finding property. Various locations for building the school were discussed.

B. Open discussion - Board By-Laws (5 minutes)
Discussion concerning stated amount for board members to fundraise – give, get, save ($10,000). All agreed was a reasonable and fair amount.
Discussion concerning that all board members read Mortimer Adler’s Paideia Proposal before board membership. All agreed.
Discussion of board terms. Suggestions were made to include three year terms within Class I, Class II, Class III so as to have members rotating on and off the board without serious lapses.

C. Laura Cook - Board Organizational Structure (15 minutes)
Discussion about the role and function of an Audit Committee. All agreed that it should remain as a separate committee.

D. Open Discussion - Current Board Positions/ Roles and Responsibilities (10 minutes)
With the absence of board members, this was tabled until next meeting.

III. Proposed Date and Topics for next Board Meeting Agenda

Next Board Meeting will occur Aug. 8- Aug. 19. Sections of the written charter application will be reviewed.
Meeting adjourned at 7:35.
The Paideia Academy

Conference Call 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. Tuesday Sept. 13, 2016

Attending: Board members - Mary Margaret Kantor, Jarrette Bumgarner, Lynne Murray, Laura Billings, Donna Rogers. School representatives – Laura Cook, Thomas Cook. Others – Robin Millette (Acadia NorthStar), Sarah Crain (Acadia NorthStar), Darrell Keller (DLK CPA, PA) and Mary Grace Keller (SLK CPA, PA)

The informational meeting was called to order at 5:33 p.m. by Ms. Rogers.

Sarah Crain, partner at Acadia NorthStar, LLC, (ANS) spoke to the group about the level of service the company provides related to handling student information and other related data that is manages via the NCDPI Power School system. She talked about the company’s help desk; redundancy of trained personnel ensuring uninterrupted operations; how invoicing is handled for charters to receive funds from county school systems; customization of report cards; required NCDPI reporting; and training of school personnel. Ms. Crain addressed that, while ANS provides these services, the charter board and school administration are responsible for validating accuracy of the information being reported to the State.

Robin Millette, partner at Acadia NorthStar, LLC, (ANS) spoke to the group about how the company manages charter school finances, guided by the policy and procedures established by school board and administration. Their involvement adds a necessary ‘layer’ to the school’s accounting processes, following mandated requirements that people who directly receive and deposit money are not the same as those making accounting entries. Much like the student information services, there are several trained accountants on staff that can provide for uninterrupted financial services, including accounts payable, payroll and filing taxes. As the majority of accounting records are retained at ANS, they also bear the burden of providing transactional proof during the annual State audit. NCDPI requires that all charter school accounting be handled through their proprietary computer system, which requires specialized training both in its operation and account coding.

Darrell Keller and Mary Grace Keller, owner and partner at DLK, CPA, PA (DLK), spoke to the group about what is entailed by the required annual audit of charter schools. Not only does this audit cover financial transactions, but also school policy and processes and compliance with charter school law, i.e. annual conflict of interest declarations, contract language, teacher qualifications and licensure, etc. Filing of federal taxes, including the Form 990 (required for non-profit organizations) is included as part of the audit contract. Mr. Keller addressed how DLK stayed current with applicable laws and audit requirements, and how his staff responds to related questions throughout the year.

No remaining questions from the Board and school administration, the meeting was adjourned at 6:26 p.m.

Section 2. Registered Office. The registered office of the corporation required by law to be maintained in the State of North Carolina may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office.

Section 3. Other Offices. The corporation may have offices at such other places, either within or without the State of North Carolina, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the affairs of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number, Term and Qualifications. The number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall be at least three and not more than fifteen as may be fixed or changed, within the minimum and maximum, by the Board of Directors. Each director shall be elected for a three-year term and until his successor is elected and qualifies. The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes with staggered terms, with each class as nearly equal in number as may be. Accordingly, approximately one-third of the directors’ terms of office shall expire each year. Each director shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors for three full consecutive three-year terms. Thereafter such director must cease to serve for a least one year before being eligible for election to the Board of Directors of the corporation. Any person who is elected to replace a director whose term has expired shall be elected to serve a three-year term. Any person elected to replace a director who dies, resigns or is removed prior to the expiration of his term shall serve for the remainder of such director’s unexpired term and also shall be eligible to serve two additional consecutive three-year terms. Directors need not be residents of the State of North Carolina.
Section 3.  Election of Directors. The directors shall be elected by the vote of the directors then in office; and those persons who receive the highest number of votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be deemed to have been elected. If any director so demands, the election of directors shall be by ballot.

Section 4.  Removal. Any director may be removed at any time with or without cause by the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Without limiting the generality of the forgoing, any director who fails to attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the meetings of the Board of Directors in any twelve-month period shall be removed unless a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall vote to permit such director to complete the unexpired portion of his term as director.

Section 5.  Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring among the directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors even though less than a quorum or by the sole remaining director. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

Section 6.  Compensation. Directors shall not be compensated for their services as such but may be reimbursed for any or all reasonable and documented expenses incurred in attending regular and special meetings of the Board.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Section 1.  Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held annually at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place as the Board of Directors may designate. In addition, the Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, either within or without the State of North Carolina, for the holding of additional regular meetings.

Section 2.  Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chair or of any two directors. Such a meeting may be held either within or without the State of North Carolina, as designated by the person or persons calling the meeting.

Section 3.  Notice of Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. The person or persons calling a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall, at least 10 days prior to the meeting, give written notice thereof delivered personally or sent by United States mail, facsimile or electronic mail to each director at his address as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. If sent by facsimile or electronic mail, such notice shall be deemed delivered upon receipt of an electronic acknowledgment of delivery. Such notice need not specify the purpose for which the meeting is called.
Section 4. Waiver of Notice. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance by a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 5. Quorum. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Manner of Acting. Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, the act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Presumption of Assent. A director of the corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless (a) his contrary vote is recorded; (b) his dissent is otherwise entered in the minutes of the meeting; (c) he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof; or (d) he shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Section 8. Informal Action by Directors. Action taken by the directors without a meeting is nevertheless Board action if written consent to the action in question is approved in writing by all of the directors, whether done before or after the action so taken. Such approval may be evidenced by signature or electronic indicia of assent, and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Section 9. Committees of the Board. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, may designate certain directors to constitute an Executive Committee and any other committees, each of which, to the extent authorized by law and provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation; provided, however, that no committee of the Board shall (a) authorize or approve any dissolution, merger or sale, pledge, transfer or other distribution of all or substantially all of the corporation’s assets; (b) elect, appoint or remove any directors, officers, committee chairman or committee members, or the Chair, or fill any vacancy; (c) adopt, amend or repeal the articles of incorporation or the bylaws; or (d) engage in any other act not specifically delegated to such committee by these bylaws or by resolution of the Board. The designation of any committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility or liability imposed upon it or him by law.
Section 10. Advisory Board. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, may designate persons to serve as members of an Advisory Board. Section 4. Removal. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby.

Section 5. Chair. The Chair shall oversee the activities of the Board of Directors and, when present, preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Vice Chair. In the absence of the Chair or in the event of his death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice Chair, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall perform the duties of the Chair, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. of secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Chair, by the Board of Directors, or by these bylaws. The Secretary may be

Purpose of Policy and Duties of Directors and Officers

The directors, officers¹ and key employees² (each an “Insider”, together the “Insiders”) of THE PAIDEIA ACADEMY: A CENTER FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING, INC. (the “Organization”) owe a duty of loyalty to the Organization, which requires that in serving the Organization they act, not in their personal interests or in the interests of others, but rather solely in the interests of the Organization. Insiders must have an undivided allegiance to the Organization’s mission and may not use their position as Insiders, information they have about the Organization or the Organization’s property, in a manner that allows them to secure a pecuniary or other material benefit for themselves or their relatives.³ Accordingly, no Insider may use his or her position at the Organization for personal gain or to benefit another at the expense of the Organization, its mission or its reputation.

A conflict of interest may arise when a person has an existing or potential financial interest or other material interest that impairs, or might appear to impair, his or her independence or objectivity in the discharge of responsibilities and duties to the Organization. This Policy is intended to protect the Organization’s interests when it is contemplating entering into a contract, transaction, or arrangement that might benefit the private interests of an Insider. This Policy is also meant to aid Insiders in performing the duties imposed upon them by the laws of the State of North Carolina and the United States of America, as applicable, with respect to their management responsibilities and fiduciary obligations to the Organization. The Organization is committed to transparency and openness in its operations.

² For purposes of this Policy, “key employee” is defined pursuant to the following three-part test:

1. $150,000 Test. The employee receives reportable compensation from the Organization and all related organizations in excess of $150,000 for the calendar year ending with or within the Organization’s tax year; and

2. Responsibility Test. The employee: (a) has responsibilities, powers or influence over the Organization as a whole that are similar to those of officers, directors or trustees; (b) manages a discrete segment or activity of the Organization that represents 10% or more of the activities, assets, income, or expenses of the Organization, as compared to the Organization as a whole; or (c) has or shares authority to control or determine 10% or more of the Organization’s capital expenditures, operating budget, or compensation for employees; and

3. Top 20 Test. The employee is one of the 20 employees (that satisfy the $150,000 Test and Responsibility Test) with the highest reportable compensation from the Organization and related organizations for the calendar year ending with or within the Organization’s tax year.

³ For the purposes of this Policy, “relative” means spouse or significant other living in the same household (“life partner”), brothers or sisters (by whole or half blood), life partners of brothers or sisters (by whole or half blood), ancestors, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and life partners of children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.
Each Insider must discharge his or her duties in good faith, with the degree of care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and in a manner such person reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Organization. This requires using common sense, being diligent and attentive to the Organization’s needs, and making thoughtful decisions in the best interests of the Organization. No Insider may take personal advantage of a business opportunity that is offered to the Organization unless the Board of Directors of the Organization first determines not to pursue such opportunity.

Each Insider must protect the confidential information of the Organization and must not use confidential information of the Organization for his or her personal benefit, or use such confidential information or his or her position as an Insider to the detriment of the Organization. Confidential information is information obtained through the Insider’s position that has not become public information.

Direct or Indirect Financial or Other Material Interest

1. Contracts, transactions, or arrangements of the Organization in which an Insider has a direct or indirect financial or other material interest shall not be prohibited, but they shall be subject to scrutiny. Any such proposed contract, transaction or arrangement (collectively, “Arrangement”) is to be reviewed to determine that it is in the best interests of the Organization.

2. For the purposes of this Policy, an Insider has a direct or indirect financial or other material interest in a proposed or existing Arrangement if he or she, or one of his or her relatives:

   (a) has a substantial financial interest directly in the proposed or existing Arrangement; or

   (b) has a substantial financial interest in any other organization that (i) is a party to the proposed or existing Arrangement; or (ii) is in any way involved in the proposed or existing Arrangement, including through the provision of services in connection therewith (an “involved organization”); or

   (c) holds a position as trustee, director, officer, member, partner, or employee in any such party or involved organization.

An Insider’s financial interest will be considered substantial if it involves:

   (a) an ownership or investment interest representing more than 1% of the outstanding shares of a publicly traded company or 5% of the outstanding shares or comparable interest of a privately owned company with which the Organization has or is negotiating an Arrangement or which is an involved organization with respect to the Arrangement; or

   (b) an ownership or investment interest, which produces a significant amount of income for or constitutes a significant part of the net worth of the Insider, or a relative of the Insider, in any entity with which the Organization has or is negotiating an Arrangement or which is an involved organization with respect to the Arrangement; or

(c) a compensation arrangement of any kind with any entity or individual with which the Organization has or is negotiating an Arrangement or with any involved organization with respect to the Arrangement.

Disclosure of Interest and Participation in Meeting

3. Each Insider of the Organization shall promptly disclose any direct or indirect financial or other material interest of which he or she has knowledge that he or she has or reasonably expects to have in any proposed or existing Arrangement with the Organization prior to the start of any negotiations with respect to such matter. A direct or indirect financial interest required to be disclosed under this Policy shall be disclosed in writing to the Chairperson of the Board. Such disclosure shall include all material facts and supply any reasons why the Arrangement is in the best interests of the Organization. The Chairperson of the Board shall refer the issue to the full Board, the Executive Committee, or other Board Committee having decision-making authority over the substantive matter in question (the “Board or Committee”).

4. The Insider who discloses a direct or indirect financial or other material interest in a proposed or existing Arrangement may make a presentation and respond to questions by the Board or Committee, but after such presentation, he or she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and vote on, the Arrangement that results in the conflict of interest. As part of any such presentation, the Insider shall provide to the Board or Committee any reasons why the Arrangement is in the best interests of the Organization. The Board or Committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain a more advantageous Arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. The Board or Committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed Arrangement. The Board or Committee, or its designee, generally shall identify at least three alternatives to the proposed Arrangement (“Competing Bids”). If a more advantageous contract, transaction, or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board or Committee shall determine by majority vote of the disinterested members of the Board or Committee whether the Arrangement is in the Organization’s best interests and whether it is fair and reasonable to the Organization and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the Arrangement in conformity with such determination.

Minutes of Meeting

5. The names of the Insiders who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a direct or indirect financial or other material interest in a proposed or existing Arrangement of the Organization, the nature of the interest, and the extent of the Insider’s participation in the relevant Board or Committee meeting on matters related to the financial or other material interest shall be recorded in the minutes for that meeting. The minutes also shall include a record of any determination as to whether the Arrangement was in the best interest of and fair and reasonable to the Organization, notwithstanding the interest, and the specific reasons supporting the determination, including any alternatives to the proposed or existing Arrangement (i.e., Competing Bids), the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the proposed or existing Arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection therewith.

Failure To Disclose

6. If the Board or Committee has reasonable cause to believe that an Insider has failed to disclose a direct or indirect financial or other material interest subject to this Policy, it shall inform the Insider of the basis for such belief and afford the Insider an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response of such individual and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the Board or Committee determines that the Insider has in fact failed to disclose a direct or indirect financial or other material interest subject to this Policy, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Annual Disclosure Statement

7. Each Insider has a duty to place the interest of the Organization foremost in any dealing with the Organization and has a continuing responsibility to comply with the requirements of this Policy. Promptly following the adoption of this Policy, and annually thereafter, each Insider shall acknowledge his or her familiarity with this Policy and shall disclose in writing to the Chairperson of the Board any existing financial or other material interests subject to this Policy, of which he or she has knowledge, that he or she reasonably expects to have in any proposed or existing Arrangement with the Organization, or in any other matter under consideration or to be considered by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, or any other Board Committee by completing a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. The Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statements shall be reviewed by the Chairperson of the Board or his or her designee. Any issues not previously disclosed shall be referred by him or her to the Board or appropriate Committee. The Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statements shall be retained in the confidential files of the Chairperson of the Board or his or her designee.

Policy Supplements Applicable Laws

8. This Policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state or federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit charitable corporations.

To whom it may concern:

I, Jarrett Bumgarner, on behalf of the board of The Paideia Academy, wish to inform of my family relationship with Laura Cook, Executive Director. I am the husband of Laura Cook’s daughter and thereby related to her as a son-in-law.

I do not view this as a substantial conflict of interest due to this relationship as I have a fortitude that allows me to keep the best interests of The Paideia Academy first and foremost in all of my decisions as a board member. Any matter that directly involves Laura Cook and the board will be decided by me with the best interests of The Paideia Academy in mind only.

Please also note that I am only on a two year rotating term for board seat in order to assist with the environmental literacy planning due to my experience as a geologist.

Sincerely,

Jarrett Bumgarner

North Carolina Charter School
Advisory Board
Raleigh, North Carolina

Dear Advisory Board Members:

I write in enthusiastic support of the charter application of the Paideia Academy that is currently under consideration. My colleagues at the National Paideia Center and I have been in touch with the designers of the Academy from the very beginning of the planning process. In addition, several members of the Academy planning committee are experienced Paideia educators and members of the National Paideia Faculty.

The Academy’s dedication to the three columns of instruction outlined in The Paideia Proposal (1982) and elsewhere is at the heart of the design for the school. In effect, this means that all classroom instruction will be dedicated to active learning made up of a wise combination of didactic instruction, intellectual coaching, and seminar discussion of ideas and values. This approach has been proven effective time and again, especially with regards to the new generation of state standards that stress rigorous communication and thinking skills.

Furthermore, the Academy’s emphasis on experiential learning (in the tradition of John Dewey) provides a strong philosophical and practical foundation for the intellectual coaching that makes up the majority of classroom instruction.

Finally, I would like to confirm that the National Paideia Center will continue to support the activities of the Academy once it receives its charter and begins the practical work to open a new school. The Associate Director of the NPC, Dr. Laura Billings, sits on the Academy’s initial Board of Directors and will bring her vast experience and expertise to the real-world implementation of the Academy’s plan.

If you have any further questions about the Paideia Center’s support for the Academy, I would be happy to answer them in person (troberts@paideia.org).

Sincerely,

Terry Roberts, Ph.D.
Director
DECLARATION OF PAIDEIA PRINCIPLES

We, the members of the Paideia Council, hold these truths to be the principles of the Paideia Program.

that all children can learn;

that, therefore, they all deserve the same quality of schooling, not just the same quantity;

that the quality of schooling to which they are entitled is what the wisest parents would wish for their own children, the best education for the best being the best education for all;

that schooling at its best is preparation for becoming generally educated in the course of a whole lifetime, and that schools should be judged on how well they provide such preparation;

that the three callings for which schooling should prepare all Americans are, (a) to earn a decent livelihood, (b) to be a good citizen of the nation and the world, and (c) to make a good life for one's self;

that the primary cause of genuine learning is the activity of the learner's own mind, sometimes with the help of a teacher functioning as a secondary and cooperative cause;

that the three types of teaching that should occur in our schools are didactic teaching of subject matter, coaching that produces the skills of learning, and Socratic questioning in seminar discussion;

that the results of these three types of teaching should be (a) the acquisition of organized knowledge, (b) the formation of habits of skill in the use of language and mathematics, and (c) the growth of the mind's understanding of basic ideas and issues;

that each student's achievement of these results should be evaluated in terms of that student's competencies and not solely related to the achievements of other students;

that the principal of the school should never be a mere administrator, but always a leading teacher who should be cooperatively engaged with the school's teaching staff in planning, reforming, and reorganizing the school as an educational community;

that the principal and faculty of a school should themselves be actively engaged in learning; that the desire to continue their own learning should be the prime motivation of those who dedicate their lives to the profession of teaching.

THE PAIDEIA COUNCIL
ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS OF A PAIDEIA SCHOOL

TEACHING AND LEARNING:
- All teachers in the school use Paideia Seminars as a central teaching/learning device.
- All teachers in the school use product-oriented coaching techniques for the majority of the instructional program.
- All teachers in the school use relatively little didactic teaching and that which is used actively engages students.
- The school stresses the same integrated core curriculum for all students, including fine arts, music, foreign language, and the manual arts, giving students the opportunity to explore these areas as they relate to the core academic subjects.
- Assessment of students and teachers is individualized in addition to standardized: emphasizing portfolio and narrative assessments in conjunction with traditional grading and appraisal. Individual growth is consistently stressed.

LEADERSHIP:
- School leaders consistently articulate a common vision aligned with the Paideia philosophy.
- Decisions are made democratically on the basis of what is best for students.
- Students in the school learn to become self-governing, both as individuals and as a group. Students are active participants in the democratic process.
- Leadership is shared such that organizational management and instructional leadership are of the highest quality.

CULTURE:
- The school is dedicated to the lifelong learning of all children and all adults.
- Since the goal of schooling is to foster lifelong learning in all involved, the school is full of adults and children who view themselves as constantly growing and learning, whose self-assessment is both demanding and fluid.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:
- The school is the center of a larger learning community.
- Community members participate in teaching and learning.

SCHEDULING:
- The school allows instructional needs to shape scheduling, and scheduling flexibility is the rule rather than the exception.
acquisition of organized knowledge through didactic instruction, development of intellectual skills by means of coaching, and enlarged understanding of ideas and values through Socratic questioning or seminars.

The Three Columns do not correspond to separate courses, nor is one kind of teaching and learning necessarily confined to any one class.

The Paideia concept is predicated on the assumption that all children can learn—that, as Adler says, “there are no unteachable children. There are only schools and teachers and parents who fail to teach them.” The Paideia program recommends curriculum reform at all grade levels, proposing a one-track system (that is, no grouping by ability—though Adler later agreed that grouping to teach skills is permitted) and a standard course of study with the same basic objec-

PAIDEIA SEMINAR LESSON PLAN

Text: from The Meditations by Marcus Aurelius

Grade / Subject: HS/ Social Studies

Ideas, Values: awareness, presence, perspective, time

Pre-Seminar Content

- Launch Activity: Lead student through the following exercise: think and feel about yourself as composed of three things. Create a geographical figure to name and illustrate those three aspects of you.

- Inspectional read: Distribute the text and invite participants to number the sentences (1-3). Count the words in each sentence (9, 25, 200). Discuss ways to divide the third sentence up into manageable parts. Read the text aloud together. Have participants underline each (of the three) "if" and put a dot in front of each (of the five) "whatever." Reread the text aloud while students mark the divisions in the third sentence based on the "whatever" and "if-then" construction.

- Background: Share as appropriate: that Marcus Aurelius lived from 121-180 AD and was one of the greatest emperors of Rome (the last of the five "good emperors"). He was known for his wisdom, service, and restraint (also known as stoicism). Also note that this text is an excerpt of his work called the Meditations (perhaps his personal journal).

- Vocabulary Development: Have students read the text slowly and silently. When all are finished, have them identify any unfamiliar words or phrases. Note the unfamiliar vocabulary on the (interactive) white board (include circumfluent, vortex, perturbations, deity). Have volunteers look up and provide definitions while the whole class takes notes on their copies of the text.

National Paideia Center, 2015
Seminar Questions

Opening (Identify main ideas from the text.):

- Which is the most challenging phrase in this text? (round-robin response)
- Why does the phrase you noted mean? (spontaneous discussion)

Core (Analyze textual details.):

- What does Marcus Aurelius mean when he writes in line 3 that “intelligence” is really yours? Refer to the text.
- What does Marcus Aurelius mean by the “external circumfluent vortex”? Why does he include it in the list of things to separate yourself from?
- According to Marcus Aurelius, what must you do about time (“things to come,” “time that is past,” “the present”) in order to live well?
- Why do you think Marcus Aurelius uses Empedocles’ sphere (“all round”) to describe the good life?
- What does Marcus Aurelius mean when he refers you to ‘you own deity within” in the last line?

Closing (Personalize and apply the textual ideas.):

- Based on this text, what do you think Marcus Aurelius’ advice to you today would be? How would you describe “your ... deity within”?

Post-Seminar Process

- Have participants do a written self-assessment of their personal participation goal.
- Do a group assessment of the social and intellectual goals of seminar.
- Note reminders for next seminar.

Post-Seminar Content

- Transition to Writing:

Make note of ideas you thought, read, heard, and said during seminar.
From The Meditations
Marcus Aurelius

You are composed of three things: body, life, intelligence. Of these the first two are yours, inasmuch as it is your duty to take care of them; but the third alone is really yours. Therefore if you will separate from yourself, that is, from your understanding, whatever others do or say, and whatever you have done or said yourself, and whatever future things trouble you because they may happen, and whatever in the body which envelops you or in the breath which is by nature associated with the body is attached to you independent of your will, and whatever the external circumfluent vortex whirls round, so that the intellectual power, exempt from the things of fate, can live pure and free by itself, doing what is just and accepting what happens and saying the truth; if you will separate, I say, from this ruling faculty the things which are attached to it by the impressions of sense, and the things of time to come and of time that is past, and will make yourself like Empedocles’ sphere,

All round, and in its joyous rest reposing;

and if you strive to live only what is really your life, that is, the present—then you will be able to pass that portion of life which remains for you up to the time of your death, free from perturbations, nobly, and obedient to your own deity within.

National Paideia Center, 2015
September 6, 2016

Dear Members of the North Carolina Charter School Advisory,

The purpose of this letter is to provide further insight regarding the organizational structure of The Paideia Academy: A Center for Teaching and Learning, Inc. (TPA.) As you read through our application, you will notice that our School’s co-founders are related; specifically they are mother and son, Laura and Thomas “Tom” Cook.

This school is being planned in order to develop lifelong learning skills within our students as defined by Mortimer Adler’s Paideia Program. The instructional methodology used in the Paideia Program is focused on three columns of instruction, and although the course of study is defined as general, not specialized or technical, instructors must be trained and experienced in guiding students through an education that is equally intellectual stimulating and experiential.

Laura Cook and Tom Cook are both National Paideia Faculty members who train teachers nation-wide, and they have been Paideia educators for a combination of more than twenty years in North Carolina. It is expected that Laura Cook will be Principal of the school and that Tom will be the Academic Dean.

The Board of Directors is cognizant of the dangers that accompany nepotism issues within a charter school, both real and perceived. We are aware of recent charter school failures with structures that allowed closed personal relationships within their managing leadership. With those lessons in mind, our nepotism policy, found within the application, reflects our deliberate consideration of our organization. Subsequently, we have carefully designed our hierarchical chain of command so that Laura Cook will not evaluate or be responsible for any decision regarding Tom Cook’s salary, work assignments, or working conditions.

With regards to the daily operations of TPA, development and training of our staff shall require both Laura and Tom Cook to work in tandem to help create a positive teaching and learning atmosphere. Their charge is to operate and lead The Paideia Academy as a team, one that will allow our school to build an integrated culture of academic and social success. Laura and Tom Cook as our part of our leadership team have the full confidence of the Board of Directors.

Best regards,

Donna Rogers
Chairperson, Board of Directors
The Paideia Academy: A Center for Teaching and Learning, Inc.
