Q12. Describe the rationale for the number of students and grade levels served in year one and the basis for the growth plan outlined above.

The HCLA-Wake planning team feels strongly that selecting grades 3-9 would allow the school to improve student learning when they first begin building strategies and skills on reading to learn specific content, skills, and processes. These grades appear to represent the most critical years in students' growth and development which will allow targeted students to benefit from the HCLA educational program encourages the use of instructional support strategies such as coaching, AVID tutoring, digital learning and coaching systems such as IXL and Khan Academy, The HCLA team feels that the greatest resources to fulfill students' primary educational needs such as learning to read, write and use numbers can be better served by the district school system. The team feels that the educational program set forth by this application can best be implemented at grades 3-8 with extensive services, instruction, counseling, and coaching provided in grades 8 and 9 to assist students with the appropriate matriculation of activities, coursework, training, and experiences to prepare them for their choice or selection for their high school and post high school endeavors.

Q13. Projected Enrollment Demographics

Q14. Certification of Originality
8. General - Mission Purposes, and Goals

8.1. Mission and Vision

Q15. The mission statement of the proposed charter school is as follows (35 words or less)

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy (HCLA-Wake) will prepare its scholars to become college-bound, career and service-oriented leaders who are motivated to make a difference in their communities and in the world.

Q16. What is the vision of the proposed school? What will the school look like when it is achieving the mission?

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy will contribute to the educational communities at the local, state, and national levels by identifying and implementing innovative learning techniques and strategies as well as best educational practices that can be replicated by other schools to positively impact student learning on a broader level with an emphasis on the integration of digital learning to enhance access to a broader array of strategies and opportunities. The unique learning styles of students will be emphasized as scholars embark upon a quest for excellence as they strive for academic, behavioral, and social engagement and progression. An emphasis is placed especially on techniques and strategies that work effectively with students with high poverty low-performance backgrounds and are accustomed to accessing minimal or limited home and community resources. HCLA-Wake will encourage its scholars to seek equitable access to learning opportunities by demonstrating their quest for excellence in their lifelong pursuits with an emphasis on building and enhancing reading, speaking, research and advocacy skills.

Comments:
At HCLA-Wake, the school’s vision includes guidance from the quotes of four leaders who helped to change the world:

(1) "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world." - Nelson Mandela

(2) "The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character-that is the goal of true education."-Martin Luther King

(3) "Be the change you wish to see in the world."-Mahatma Gandhi

(4) "We are one. Our cause is one, and we must work together if we are to succeed."-Frederick Douglas
Q17. Provide a description of Targeted Population in terms of demographics. In your description, include how this population will reflect the racial and ethnic composition of the school system in which it is located. Additionally, how it will reflect the socioeconomic status of the LEA, SWD population, and ELL population of the district? See G.S. 115C-218.45(e).

The Targeted Demographic Population does not necessarily reflect the overall racial and ethnic composition of the magnet schools or Wake County Schools as a whole but does reflect the racial and ethnic population of communities and some schools in the upper Northeastern section of Wake County. In addition, the 40 plus percentages reflect the socioeconomic status of the schools located in the targeted communities and comparable public schools in upper Northeastern Wake County and as far as the SWD population (14%) and ELL population (9%) in those communities.

Q18. What are the enrollment trends and academic performance outcomes of surrounding schools in the selected community? What elements of your educational model will meet the needs of your target student population?

The enrollment trends of the targeted communities in upper Northeastern Wake County appear to reflect a similar pattern to the expected enrollment referenced for HCLA-Wake. The average academic performance of students in many of the comparable schools listed is below the state averages in Reading and Mathematics as reflected in the 2018-19 NC State School Report Cards. The HCLA-Wake planning team believes that many aspects of the schools educational plan will uniquely meet the needs and enhance the skills of the targeted population which will assist students in improving their academic performance. A major difference will be that each student will be taught to use and have access to a digital tablet that will allow them to go beyond the classroom to employ strategies to learn specific skills and concepts and to practice what they have learned by demonstrating what they have learned by completing meaningfully assigned activities (independent practice) to ensure mastery and internalization. Additionally, HCLA-Wake will be an AVID (Advancement via Individual Determination) certified school in which each scholar is taught the Executive Functions of success. It will be a Global school welcoming scholars from worldwide diverse cultural backgrounds. It will be a school where the cultural pride of the scholars is encouraged. In addition, each teacher will be trained on the teaching techniques and strategies espoused by Doug Lemov in "Teach Like a Champion 2.0" and "Teach Like a Champion Field Guide 2.0" from Uncommon Schools. Students will be trained on digital instructional models using programs such as ZEARN Mathematics, Khan Academy, and IXL will be used to supplement classroom instruction to ensure that the learning styles of all students are accessed. In addition, every scholar will have exposure to small group life and student-success coaching. HCLA-Wake, while following the NC
Standard Course of Study will personalize its curriculum delivery to meet the needs of the scholars—the proposed partnership with Dr. Jim Poole and FASTBRAIN (Raleigh) and the Hill Center (Durham) will ensure that HCLA-Wake is uniquely qualified to support scholars with special needs such as ADHD, Autism, and other unique learning needs.

In addition, HCLA-Wake will be a trauma-informed school that also focuses on mindset and mindfulness. HCLA_Wake scholars will be exposed to the principles of ethics, character-based servant leadership, and integrity as integral components of their learning process. The planning team believes that these techniques along with others discussed throughout this application uniquely prepares our school to meet the needs of our target student population.

Q19. What will be the total projected enrollment at the charter school and what percentage of the Average Daily Membership (ADM) does that reflect when compared to the Local Education Agency (LEA) of the same offered grade levels? (i.e. If the proposed school will be grades 9-12, only compare the total enrollment to the total enrollment of the LEA in grades 9-12).

The projected enrollment of Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy is 700 students (grades K-6) in 2022-2023. The enrollment is expected to increase annually by approximately 100 students by adding a grade each year until the enrollment caps at grade 8 in 2024-2025 for a total of 900 students. The 900 students reflect approximately .008 percentage of the Average Daily Membership (ADM) when compared to Wake County Schools which has a total of approximately 112,089 K-8 students. The total student population of Wake County Schools as of 2019-20 is 161,907.

Q20. Summarize what the proposed school will do differently than the schools that are now serving the targeted population. What will make this school unique and more effective than the currently available public-school options?

The HCLA-Wake planning team believes that many aspects of the schools educational plan will uniquely meet the needs and enhance the skills of the targeted population which will assist students in improving their academic performance. A major difference will be that each student will be taught to use and have access to a tablet that will allow them to go beyond the classroom to employ strategies to learn specific skills and concepts and to what practice what they have learned by demonstrating what they have learned by completing meaningfully assigned activities (independent practice) to ensure mastery and internalization. Additionally, HCLA-Wake will be an AVID certified school in which each scholar is taught the Executive Functions of success. It will be a Global school welcoming youth from diverse cultural backgrounds from anyplace in the world and where cultural pride of the scholars is encouraged. In addition, each teacher will be trained on the teaching techniques and strategies espoused by Doug Lemov in "Teach Like a Champion 2.0" and "Teach Like a Champion Field Guide 2.0" from Uncommon Schools. Students will be trained on digital instructional models using programs such as ZEARN Mathematics, Khan Academy, and IXL will be used to supplement classroom instruction to ensure that the learning styles of all students are accessed. In addition, every scholar will have exposure to small group life and student-success coaching. HCLA-Wake, while following the NC Standard Course of Study, will be personalized to meet the needs of the scholars— the proposed partnership with Dr. Jim Poole and FASTBRAIN (Raleigh) and the Hill Center (Durham) will ensure that HCLA-Wake is uniquely qualified to support scholars with special needs such as ADHD, Autism, and other unique learning needs. The planning team of the HCLA-Wake believes that the unique focus on the development of the whole student development with a strong student support system, the emphasis on rigorous and engaging curriculum delivery, and well as high expectations for all students will make a tremendous difference in the educational motivation of the students. We believe that when students are taught how to learn, why it is important to learn, what they are expected to learn, that they will learn and as a result will perform at a higher level on the required assessments.

In addition, HCLA-Wake will be a trauma-informed school that also focuses on mindset and mindfulness. HCLA-Wake scholars will be exposed to the principles of ethics, character-based servant leadership, and integrity as integral components of their learning process. The planning team believes that these techniques along with others discussed throughout this application uniquely prepares our school to meet the needs of our target student population.

Q21. Describe the relationships that have been established to generate support for the school. How have you assessed demand for the school? Briefly describe these activities and summarize their results

Members of the HCLA-Wake team have had discussions and conversations with parents, educators, and community leaders in addition to meetings in Northeastern Wake County with community groups and churches to share information about the proposed school sharing information about the proposed school and how it will differ from Wake County Schools and other charter schools in the area. All contacts have resulted in shared concerns about the lack of engagement and educational options of Northeastern Wake County base schools especially for special needs and high poverty minority students.

Provide evidence that demonstrates parents and guardians have committed to enrolling their children in your school. You must provide evidence through a narrative or visual of this educational need through survey data, or times and locations of public meetings discussing this proposed charter school. (Please do not provide more than one sample survey form).

Comments:
Evidence is attached to support the fact that members of the HCLA-Wake's planning team have contacted parents and families in Northeastern Wake County who have expressed an interest in enrolling their children in HCLA-Wake. Many expressed concerns that there are too few educational options for high-poverty and especially minority Black and Hispanic students in Northeastern Wake County. Team members were told that stu-
8.2. Purposes of the Proposed Charter School

Q23. In one page or less, describe how the proposed charter school will achieve one or more of the six legislative purposes, as specifically addressed in the NC charter school statute GS 115C-218, and the proposed school's operations.

The Six Legislative Purposes of a Charter School are:
1. Create new professional opportunities for teachers, including the opportunities to be responsible for the learning program at the school site.
2. Hold schools accountable for meeting measurable student achievement results.
3. Provide parents and students with expanded choices in the types of educational opportunities that are available within the public-school system.
4. Improving student learning.
5. Increasing learning opportunities for all students, with a special emphasis on at-risk or gifted students.
6. Encourage the use of different and innovative teaching methods.

A major purpose of Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake is Legislative Purpose 4: To Improve Student Learning.

HCLA-Wake is committed to improving the learning of all of its students.

The HCLA-Wake team believes that many aspects of the schools educational plan will uniquely meet the needs and enhance the skills of the targeted population which will assist students in improving their academic performance. A major difference will be that each student will be taught to use and have access to a digital tablet that will aid them in going beyond the classroom to employ strategies to learn specific skills and concepts and to practice what they have learned by demonstrating and completing meaningfully assigned activities (independent practice) to ensure mastery and internalization. Additionally, HCLA-Wake will be an AVID (Advancement via Individual Determination) certified school in which each scholar is taught the Executive Functions of success. In addition, HCLA-Wake will be a Global School welcoming students from diverse cultural backgrounds from around the world and will have a climate in which the diverse cultural pride of the scholars is encouraged. At HCLA-Wake each teacher will be trained on the teaching techniques and strategies espoused by Doug Lemov in "Teach Like a Champion 2.0" and "Teach Like a Champion Field Guide 2.0" from Uncommon Schools. Students will be trained on digital instructional models and blended learning models using programs such as ZEARN Mathematics, Khan Academy, and IXL which will be used to supplement classroom instruction to ensure that the learning styles of all students are accessed. In addition, every scholar will have exposure to small group life and student-success coaching. Also, HCLA-Wake's curriculum delivery, while following the NC Standard Course of Study, will be personalized to meet the needs of the scholars—the proposed partnership with Dr. Jim Poole and FASTBRAIN (Raleigh) and the Hill Center (Durham) will ensure that HCLA-Wake is uniquely qualified to support scholars with special needs such as ADHD, Autism, and other unique learning needs.

In addition, HCLA-Wake will be a trauma-informed school that also focuses on mindset and mindfulness. HCLA_Wake scholars will be exposed to the principles of ethics, character-based servant leadership, and integrity as integral components of their learning process. The planning team believes that these techniques along with others discussed throughout this application uniquely prepares our school to meet the needs of our target student population. It is the belief of the HCLA-Wake Team that the school will contribute to improving and enhancing student learning regardless of where their level of achievement is when then enroll in the school.

A second purpose of HCLA-Wake is that by it mere existence in the Upper Northeast Wake County Community is to (3) provide parents and students with expanded choices in the types of educational opportunities that are available within the public-school system. The benefit will be the location and the welcoming climate for culturally diverse scholars and families as well as access to the progressive blended learning models offered by the school.

The HCLA-planning team believes that through its progressive and innovative curriculum and delivery, (6) the school will encourage the use of different and innovative teaching methods some of which are described in detail in the school's Educational Plan Section. A component of the school's commitment to its scholars, staff, and parents is its assurance that the professional development of teachers is an ongoing process that is achieved by flexing the school schedule and offering PLCs (professional Learning communities) activities regularly.

8.3. Goals for the Proposed Charter School
Q24. Provide specific and measurable goals for the proposed school for the first 5 years of operation outlining expectations for the proposed school's operations, academics, finance, and governance. Address how often, who, and when the information will be communicated to the governing board and other stakeholders.

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake has set several preliminary goals for the school's education program using the SMART system, however, the goals will be re-examined at the point the school is getting ready to open at the beginning of the 2022-2023 academic year. The governing board, the school's leadership, and select staff members at that time will again use the SMART System to re-evaluate the goals based on the actual students planning to enroll in the school at that time. The school will use performance data from the students' records to help in defining what the new actual smart goals should become. For now and for this application, the preliminary goals are set as follows:

1. HCLA-Wake will meet or exceed growth on the NC School Report Card for that year at the end of 2022-2023 academic year

2. HCLA-Wake will receive a school letter grade of C or higher on the NC School Report Card at the end of the 2023-2024 academic year.

3. HCLA-Wake will achieve a gain of plus 1 percentage points on its overall academic proficiency (Levels 3, 4, and 5) on the ELA Assessments at the end of the 2023-2024 academic year.

4. HCLA-Wake will achieve a gain of plus 1 percentage points on its overall academic proficiency (levels 3, 4, and 5) on the mathematics assessments at the end of the 2023-2024 academic year.

5. HCLA-Wake will achieve a return rate of at least 95 percent on the Teacher Working Conditions Survey at the end of the 2022-2023 academic year.

The executive director of the school, along with the school principal, will communicate to the governing board the school's performance towards its goals throughout the year at monthly board meetings as is applicable and appropriate as data are available.

Comments:
HCLA-Wake will ensure that each year beginning with the 2022-2023 academic year all eligible students will take the state-required assessments. HCLA-Wake will also comply with the requirements of the North Carolina Accountability Program set forth by the North Carolina State Board of Education. The HCLA-Wake governing Board and staff understand that meeting its annual academic goals are critical to the viability of the school.
Q25. How will the governing board know that the proposed public charter school is working toward attaining their mission statement?

HCLA-Wake's governing board will know that the school is working toward attaining its mission in numerous ways. (1) The school leadership will be required to submit an annual report of student performance fiscal accountability to the governing board at the end of each academic and fiscal year. The report will provide baseline data from the beginning of the year with milestone results showing student performance at each the first three quarters. In addition, the school's leadership will provide quarterly updates to the governing board on student performance on quarterly assessments in reading and mathematics, students involvement in service projects including what they were, with whom, and any recipient feedback that is available. At each board meeting throughout the academic year, the governing board will be provided updates on student activities such as the number of books read, number of book reports, site visits, field trips, programs students are involved in to train on leadership such as assigned projects and the perceive quality of the project outcomes, program participation purchases made during the quarter (such as AVID for college prep), career days in which people from different careers are encouraged to come to the school and speak to students about the various career opportunities available in the community such as an engineer, a plumber, a doctor, tractor trailer driver, a designer, real estate broker and others. Although the students are in elementary and middle school they will still get to take field trips to universities and invite university staff in to discuss their respective universities, colleges, community colleges, or trade schools. In other words, reports to the governing board, whether quarterly or annually, will reflect activities and purchases that show that the school is actively engaging in activities and funding expenditures that contribute to carrying out the mission of the school.

During each monthly Governing Board meeting, the school leader will address each item on the agenda in the context of working toward attaining the school's mission.
9. Educational Plan

9.1. Instructional Program

Q26. Provide a detailed description of the overall instructional program of the proposed charter school, including:

- major instructional methods
- assessment strategies, and
- explain how this instructional program and model meet the needs of the targeted student population

The overall instructional program is going to be primarily grounded in the college prep foundation, particularly in grades K-4. We will assure that every child is given the foundation needed to transition into the college prep track in which some of our students will do beginning at grade 5. We also will have a career path track. These students will be exposed to various careers. We will have opportunities in which we infuse conversations around careers, with what students are studying in all of their classes. For example, in Math, connections will be made to careers like engineering and mathematicians. In Science, we will look at careers such as scientists and doctors. In all of our coursework, even if a student decides to go the career pathway, we want to make sure that everything we are doing is giving them a foundation that is strong enough to transition into Honors and AP Courses at the high school level. In other words, we want our students to be competitive as they are given access to more high quality educational opportunities, both while they are with us and beyond. Consequently, we are essentially beginning with the end in mind. We will use the current North Carolina curriculum applicable to the 2021-2022 school year. We are paying close attention to curriculum changes in English/Language Arts. What will set us apart from other traditional schools is that we will take the time to focus on the speaking and listening, as well as, the writing components of the ELA curriculum. Often in traditional schools, this is not a priority because it is not tested. We believe that these aspects of ELA are essential to students who are moving towards the advanced track in high school. Moreover, we will ensure that our students will be college and career ready by offering the best instructional practices and educational programs such as AVID [Advancement Via Individual Determination] and Competitive Debate and debate across the curriculum.

Every content area teacher together with elective teachers will be encouraged to engage students in critical thinking activities such as Paideia Socratic Seminars, Philosophical Chairs, classroom debate, collaborative study groups and public speaking (impromptu). Moreover, we will be adding to our educational plan the TED-Ed Student Program. TED-Ed Talks will spark the curiosity of learners and inspire them to use their voices to share their ideas with the world. In this program, students will learn how to discover, explore and present their ideas in the format of TED-style talks. This was a program we had to apply for and we were required to lay out how it was to be used. This course of study will be offered to 20 students in grades 6 – 8. At HCLA-Wake, speaking and listening will be key areas of focus as both skills are necessary for critical thinking and student leadership.

The curriculum framework we will work within is AVID [Advancement Via Individual Determination]. In most traditional schools that use the AVID program, the AVID Elective is only offered to approximately 20-30 students in the whole student population. HCLA-Wake will integrate AVID school wide, empowering students with both the knowledge and skills to take charge of their own learning. When students understand themselves as “learners”, it is one part of the journey to becoming self-directed and intrinsically motivated learners. AVID Schoolwide works through transforming four key domains of operations: Instruction, Systems, Leadership, and Culture. Focusing on these domains, AVID's philosophy and methodologies become deeply ingrained, and the benefits become recognized and widely experienced. The Schoolwide approach was developed to help educators integrate high-engagement college-preparedness strategies into their classes and provide opportunities for all students. HCLA-Wake will offer AVID Elementary and the traditional AVID Secondary Elective beginning in the grade 5 through grade 8. AVID Elementary will be infused into the content areas by teachers in grades K-4. Moreover, we are excited that AVID is moving towards digital aspects of the program because we know that virtual learning is something that we all have come to appreciate in light of COVID-19. HCLA-Wake will also use AVID Training for Teachers as a major component of what we do from the beginning of the school year and on an ongoing basis throughout the year.

HCLA-Wake's overall instructional program will offer a high quality project-based, "no-excuses", child-centered, trauma-sensitive, college preparatory, leadership-focused educational opportunity targeting students in Wake County. The school has a commitment to meet students where they are in order to help them maximize their potential regardless of their ability level by hands-on experiences throughout their education that will enhance their overall learning by helping them to make real-world connections. The school will develop the whole child by addressing their academic, social, emotional and behavioral needs throughout their learning experiences.

Students will be taught a project-based curriculum in each of the content areas. The existing state curriculum will provide the framework for academic content in (1) English/Language Arts and (2) Mathematics in grades K-8. Even though the State Standards will be used as the academic framework, there will be an expectation of academic rigor in which students will be required to demonstrate mastery by developing and presenting academic projects that are meaningful, real-world, and that integrate knowledge and skills from all students and ensuring a high degree of learning. Students will be required to use information from every discipline to learn to conduct research, write, present, and speak in the development of their academic projects. An emphasis will be on reading, writing, speaking, thinking critically, inquiry, organization, and problem solving in all of the content areas. Students will also be taught (3) Science and scientific inquiry, (4) Social Studies in grades K-8 using State essential standards also with the expectation of academic rigor and critical thinking and an understanding of where places are, how the world works, the role of the economic, political, and other systems on every aspect of life. In addition to the core curricula, students will be taught (5) how to use technology as a tool to support research initiatives to organize, store, and present information and to access and analyze data. All students will have at least weekly exposure to (6) Physical Education/Health/Nutrition. To make the learning experiences more versatile and engaging, students will get cultural exposures in (7) Music Appreciation and Genres and Fine Arts to help them learn, understand, and appreciate the different art forms and to encourage student involvement and participation in cultural events in the community. Students will be offered (8) character education through weekly community learning circles that will teach them regarding behaviors, values, personal growth, development, and leadership. Also, student will be offered foreign languages, in the areas of (9) Mandarin Chinese, which originates in China and is a key language used in the global marketplace in the 21st century, and Spanish, a language that is becoming increasingly more common in Wake County and the country and (10) Latin infused into English/Language Arts classes to improve students' vocabulary and word meaning skills.

Students will be assessed throughout the academic year using IXL assessments and any approved NCDPI interim assessments. We will use common assessments by grade and these assessments will be developed by our Director of Curriculum & Instruction who will be working with the teachers directly. He or she will be able to guide them on what they should be doing instructionally because this individual will be the one who has to sign off on our common assessments. That person will start out making the common assessments similar to the teacher gradual release of responsibility for students, the same will happen with the Director. The Director will start out in Quarter 1 doing the common assessments. By Quarter 4, we would like to see teachers doing that collaboratively with the Director of Curriculum & Instruction being informed but not necessarily having to be so involved in the process.
At HCLA, we will place as much emphasis on routines and procedures for adult learners as we do with the scholars. We will work hard to ensure positive, engaging, and supportive professional development opportunities for our teachers and staff. The focus on Professional Development will include but not limited to:

- Teach Like a Champion 2.0 by Doug Lemove (Drives the academic and behavioral culture in grades K-8): Teachers and Staff Curriculum
- Curriculum Training by Grade (NC Standard Course of Study/ Curriculum Integration / Debate Across the Curriculum)

Q27. Curriculum and Instructional Design

Describe the basic learning environment (e.g., classroom-based, independent study), including class size and structure for each grade span (i.e. elementary, middle, high) the school would ultimately serve.

Heritage Collegiate will have a basic learning environment that is a classroom-based, typical teacher-directed classroom setting where the expectation is that there will be approximately 25 students per class. Students will learn to work individually and in small groups while participating in the classroom and while working on their projects. The school will have a physical education area and at least two technology labs through which students will be expected to rotate. The instructional setting is expected to make use of multiple technologies such as computers, IPADs, Smart Boards, and remote learning opportunities. Students will also receive their formative and benchmark assessments using the computers. These online assessments will be administered at the end of each instructional unit and the data used to inform instructional decisions about individual students as well as groups of students. Heritage Collegiate plans to provide daily extended hours of instruction (8:00-3:30 p.m.) for all students to provide time for any necessary instructional intervention as well as enrichment opportunities for the AIG students.

Heritage Collegiate will have an primary, elementary, and middle school components (K-8) to its operation. The school will be in session for 185 days and/or 1025 hours for each academic year. The school's education program is designed on two key ideals:

(1) All students can learn and are capable of achieving at the highest levels. In the 21st Century, students must be prepared for college and the real-world throughout the public school experience beginning when they enter school in kindergarten. Providing a rigorous academic curriculum with college preparatory opportunities for every student, provides a gateway for students to become competitive for college. Extended time for learning, and a highly qualified highly motivated staff using college preparatory and leadership curricula will prepare students for success in the high school college preparatory programs, success in college, and success as community and world leaders. (2) All students will receive training to build leadership skills and an ethical philosophy to support character development. The KidLead leadership curriculum focuses on developing the 16 most important qualities desired in leaders, based on a compilation of research, by Dr. Alan Nelson. Students will be taught to become leaders and to develop a sense of purpose beyond themselves that is greater than mere social and economic attainment. Heritage Collegiate takes on the responsibility of teaching students to understand their role in society and how to shape their own moral principles. Formal class time will be devoted to this training because we believe that students represent the future and that educating a school of "leaders" will improve the local community and society at large in the short and long-term.
In addition, structure at the school will be provided so that each student will know, understand, and expect school-wide systems, routines, and procedures from classroom to classroom to support student learning. Each classroom's white-board will be arranged using the same format consisting of the date, the AIM, the agenda, and homework for the day. Teachers will also plan their lessons consistent with units, AIMS, and objectives during common planning sessions directed by the school's instructional leadership team to ensure continuity and alignment from classroom to classroom and vertical articulation from grade to grade.

Q28. Identify how this curriculum aligns with the proposed charter school's mission, targeted student population, and North Carolina Accountability Model. Provide evidence that the chosen curriculum has been successful with the target student population, how the plan will drive academic improvement for all students, and how it has been successful in closing achievement gaps.

Heritage Collegiate is committed to fulfilling its mission to its students and the community it serves. As such, the curriculum that it proposes to offer aligns with the proposed school's mission, the targeted student population, the North Carolina required assessments, and the North Carolina Accountability Model. The Common Core Standards in ELA and Mathematics and the Essential Skills Standards in Science and Social Studies will provide the basic academic content framework for student learning at the school and aligns with the State's benchmark and summative assessments and the State's Accountability Model. The other learning experiences offered for students at Heritage Collegiate align with the mission of the school in areas such as Fine Arts exposure, Latin infusion in ELA classes to improve students' vocabulary and meaning of words, foreign languages such as Spanish, and Mandarin Chinese, as well as character education will make the students more versatile, will help them in developing virtues, courage, wisdom, and in acquiring an understanding that they will be expected to become leaders who are motivated themselves to do well and who will inspire others as they are prepare for high school, college, and the global society in which they will be expected to function. The health/physical education/nutrition component of the curriculum will help students develop into healthy individuals who will become better informed about the causes of many of the illness and health issues in the community and society as a whole which hopefully they will share with family members and others in the community. Students will be prepared, through their training at Heritage Collegiate, for high school, college, and to become leaders in the community and in the society as they develop and mature.

The project-based learning and service-based learning models proposed by the school will prepare students to succeed in high school, college, and in the community by understanding how to develop projects and present them and how to give back as they move forward at
The school—developing themselves, maturing, and inspiring others. The academic rigor that the school proposes will be handled through the diverse strategies employed to teach students to think critically when solving problems and making decisions and the high expectations for student performance imposed by the culture and the staff at the school. All students at Heritage Collegiate will be expected to master the use of the different components of technology especially the computers used at the school for individualized instruction, for formative assessments, and to develop and implement students' projects and presentations. Students will also use computers as required for any necessary remote learning and to participate in blended learning sessions in which teachers rotate and often make use of technology to enhance the experience for students.

Q29. Describe the primary instructional strategies that the school will expect teachers to master and explain why these strategies will result in increased academic achievement for the targeted student population for each grade span (i.e. elementary, middle, high) the school would ultimately serve.

Heritage Collegiate will expect all of its staff to master innovative instructional strategies to help students become successful and to fulfill its mission, purposes, and goals. It is expected that teachers will participate in mandated professional development and other experiences to learn how to increase the rigor and engagement of their instructional delivery, to improve their content skill level, and to increase the academic achievement of their students. Heritage Collegiate believes that inclusion of these strategies will maximize the educational opportunities for students. Heritage Collegiate will use a variety of strategies including but not limited to:

1) AVID (Advancement via Individualized Development) to foster its college preparatory program across all grades by preparing students for college readiness and success in a global society. To continue the college preparatory mindset, all staff will be required to read, and maintain a copy of

2) "Teach Like A Champion" by Doug Lemov and discuss its tenets in a professional development setting held at the beginning of the school year and implement its practices. The goal is to help teachers to understand the promise to help every child achieve their potential and to ensure that every activity is to prepare students to become college ready and leaders. Leadership training include

3) "Pyramid of Success" by Coach John Wooden in which students are taught the 12 lessons of success; and

4) KidLead from Dr. Alan Nelson, which "targets leaders when they are young by teaching them writing, inquiry, collaboration, and organization, and reading skills. KidLead teaches the 16 most desirable qualities of a leader. It also has a service-based component to its transformational Curriculum which emphasizes service to the community. Other character education components to the program at Heritage Collegiate are

5) using the "no excuse" model. "No Excuses" schools reject excuses for under-achievement and poor behavior; because to make excuses is to lower expectations of what students can achieve. Other celebrations of students' successes such as enrollment in the "national honor society" organizations and other recognitions of students who are high performing and/or who have successful experiences along the way will be employed to ensure students are recognized for their successes and achievements. Another character education program at Heritage Collegiate consists of a system of

6) student "life coaching" strategies which will help students improve their self-efficacy. Students will be taught

7) project-based learning opportunities that will foster reading, research, writing, and presentation skills that students will need throughout their lives. Students will be taught

8) critical thinking skills when solving problems and making decisions and how to participate in

9) Socratic Seminar discussions which as a strategy encourages collaborative intellectual dialogue using questions,

10) debating across the curriculum with opportunities for students in the middle grades to participate in competitive "debates".

11) Remote learning opportunities will be available at Heritage Collegiate to offer learning opportunities and experiences for students in areas where they may not otherwise be exposed such as Spanish and Mandarin Chinese and enrichment for AIG students. Teachers at Heritage Collegiate will use

12) differentiated teaching and learning strategies for students who may be low or high performers in order to meet students where they are.

13) Blended Learning strategies will also be implemented which is a strategy in which students rotate on a fixed schedule or at the teachers discretion between learning modalities, at least one of which is online learning.

Heritage Collegiate will provide professional development to train its teachers to learn and implement these innovative strategies in order to maximize student learning.
Q30. Explain how the proposed instructional plan and graduation requirements will ensure student readiness to transition from grade to grade and to the next grade span upon program completion

The HCLA instructional plan will have at its core the same curriculum that traditional schools have. We will use the NC Standard Course of Study. This is required to ensure that our scholars are being taught the information that will be tested on State mandated standardized tests. However, it is the pedagogical frameworks that we use when teaching that will set us apart from other schools. There will be common instructional routines, practices, and procedures that will allow scholars to be able to anticipate the flow of each class. This sets scholars up for success. As we infuse AVID/coaching/mindfulness/growth mindset/character/leadership strategies, we foster a healthy efficacy in our scholars that ensures that they approach learning and growth seriously. Following the NC Standard Course of Study as the foundation of all we do will ensure student (scholar) readiness to transition from grade to grade and to high school, college, and beyond.

Q31. Describe in a brief narrative below on how the yearly academic calendar coincides with the tenets of the proposed mission and education plan.

Heritage Collegiate is committed to serving its students for a minimum of 185 days or 1025 hours for every given academic year. The school doors will open for students at 7:30 a.m. on each school day. The academic day will begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m. Students will be excused according to scheduled holidays and teacher workdays which will be included in the academic calendar approved by the governing board. Whenever a school day is dismissed or not convened due to inclement weather or some for time as soon as the school calendar permits but before the end of the academic year. Because Heritage Collegiate is committed to scheduling classes Monday through Friday of emergency disaster, provisions will be made to make up the loss by including extended instructional hours, the academic calendar and the school schedule will reflect these requirements which will be included in all marketing materials and provided to all students and parents as a component of the application/admission process. Heritage Collegiate seeks to have extended instructional hours to ensure that the instruction, experiences, and services students need will be provided to help them become successful. The proposed extended instructional time is consistent with the requirements of the school's mission and its proposed educational plan.

Q32. Describe the structure of the school day and week. Include the number of instructional hours/minutes in a day for core subjects such as language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies. Note the length of the school day, including start and dismissal times. Explain why the school’s daily and weekly schedule will be optimal for student learning.

The Structure of the School Day will vary by grade to ensure the full use of our Elective Courses to drive the PLC schedule. Elective teachers will have their PLC at the beginning of each day since the first block will be content courses across the grades. Our courses will be 45 minutes long with a 5 minute transition built in. This means students will receive approximately 3.75 hours of instruction in each content area per week. The total amount of time for ELA and Math instruction will be doubled. In grades 3-8, We will Literacy and Math Blocks. ELA and SS Teachers will teach Reading Literacy Block and Math and Science Teachers will teach Math Block. Essentially, this means Reading (Literacy) and Math Concepts will be taught for 90 minutes, in some form, each day. This means our scholars will receive a total 7.5 hours, per week, on math and literacy instruction. The school day is an 8 - 3:30. Our schedule is optimal for the school day because it affords the time and attention to those areas of our education plan and professional development/support plan to get everything done.

Q33. Describe a typical day for a teacher and a student in the school's first year of operation

A typical day for a teacher in the school's first year of operation will begin with receiving students. The teacher will use scholar leaders to help make his/her duties less cumbersome. Breakfast will be served in each room while children engage in Morning Mindfulness activity during the Eagle's Nest Homeroom Time. Then, each teacher will teacher four content classes, have a planning period for PLC time or free planning time. Elective teachers will teach 4-5 content courses unless working part-time. Elective teachers will also have PLC or free planning time each day. We will only meet after school as a whole staff on Wednesday. Beginning Teachers will be every other week after school. Mentor teachers will be given coverage to allow them time to observe teachers. Our goal is to ensure that every teacher’s day reflects our school mission for children. However, because our targeted population may require extra supports, we want to ensure that we are operating with the social and emotional well-being of our teachers in mind too.

Q34. Will this proposed school include a high school?

Q37. Attach Appendix D: Yearly Academic Calendar (minimum of 185 instructional days or 1,025 hours)

Comments:
A sample draft academic calendar is attached that depicts an academic calendar year with a minimum of 185 days or 1025 hours. The academic school day will begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m. for students. The school doors will open at 7:30 a.m. on each weekday Monday through Friday and close at 4:00 p.m. Whenever school does not convene due to inclement weather or some other form of emergency or disaster, the governing board will make decisions necessary to ensure that any loss time is made up before the end of the school year. The school's academic calendar at the beginning of each academic year will begin with professional development and academic planning sessions for teachers and staff. At least a week at the beginning of each academic year will be devoted to such activities. The academic calendar will be made available to the community, teachers, and staff each year as soon as the Wake County Schools' traditional calendar is established and approved by the Wake County Board of Education. To the extent feasible, the official HCLA-Wake annual calendars will be synchronized with Wake County Schools' traditional school calendar including all State and federal holidays.

9.2. Special Populations and “At-Risk” Students

Q39. Explain how the school will identify and meet the learning needs of students who are performing below grade level and monitor their progress. Specify the programs, strategies, and supports you will provide for these students

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake will use strategies such as the Tier 3 Response to Intervention (RtI) program that identifies learning differences early in a student's academic trajectory. The USED strongly encourages schools to adopt the RtI approach, in order to avoid excessive classification of low-performing students who do not necessarily have a learning disability as do students with a disability. HCLA-Wake team members believe that non-severe learning differences can be improved through individualizing/ differentiating teaching and learning.

HCLA-Wake approach is to serve every child daily with over an hour of intervention in the designated Learning Lab where students receive 1:1 and small group instruction with tutors. As a consequence, the RtI model results in a smaller number of students being classified as students with a disability as all students are receiving a highly individualized instruction tailored to their unique set of needs and documented in their personal education plan (PEP). at HCLA-Wake, no student will be expected to fall through the crack as through identification, acceleration, and enrichment, all students will be able to realize and maximize their potential. Each student at the school, regardless of their level of academic performance, will have a Personal Education Plan (PEP) which identifies differentiated prevention and intervention strategies especially for student who are NOT achieving grade level performance in reading and mathematics. The PEPs will be closely monitored by the teachers and staff to ensure that the students are realizing set goals.

In areas such as reading and mathematics, students will be given tutorial intervention services and opportunities for remedial instruction routinely as a component of their extended hours of instruction. All students in ELA and Mathematics will be administered formative assessments at the completion of their instruction unit using a designated designated online assessment tool. The tool will be aligned to the curriculum goals and will provide data to help inform instruction for individual students requiring differentiated intervention strategies.
The entire instructional staff at HCLA-Wake will become involved in developing strategies for students who are at-risk of becoming successful in meeting their goals. Teacher-led instructional team meetings will be held to develop comprehensive plans to work with these students. The teachers and staff at HCLA-Wake will be encouraged to have high expectations for all students regardless of their need for special services. Students who are considered to be among the students who are at risk of failing will have access to all educational programs at the school and services will be provided to them always in the least restrictive environment feasible.

Q40. Describe the extent to which one or more of the founding board members has experience working with special populations (students with disabilities, students with 504 Plans, ELs, students identified as gifted, and students at risk of dropping out). If no founding board members have experience working with special populations, describe the school's pre-opening plan to prepare for special populations.

Many of the members of the HCLA-Wake planning team and founding board have experienced working with special populations as many are career and trained educators whose jobs required them to become involved with special populations as a teacher or as a school administrator. Some have worked in high performing schools and school districts while others have worked in very low performing schools and school districts. Members of the HCLA-Wake panning team and founding board have worked in the assessment of special population students, while others have led and participated in IEP, Section 504 and ELS identification and planning sessions, some have taught special needs students including at risk students, some have worked in setting up special needs student files, some have participated in special needs audits, while others have worked with gifted students provided oversight on rigorous curriculum programming and instructional delivery for gifted students. HCLA-Wake planning team and founding board members fully understand the mandates in place at the State and federal levels on providing services, instruction, and assessments as well as maintaining the confidential records of students in the special population categories and will ensure that all mandates are carried out to the fullest extent of those expectations.

Q41. Explain how the instructional plan and curriculum will meet the needs of English Learners (EL), including the following:
   a. Methods for identifying EL students (and avoiding misidentification).
   b. Specific instructional programs, practices, and strategies the school will employ to ensure academic success and equitable access to the core academic program for EL students.
   c. Plans for monitoring and evaluating the progress and success of EL students, including exiting students from EL services.
   d. Means for providing qualified staffing for EL students.

The instructional plan and curriculum will meet the needs of English Learners (ELL) in the following ways:
(a) The staff at HCLA-Wake will use the process established by the Federal Title III Guidelines and the NCDPI to identify English Language Learners. According to the NCDPI website, it still uses the Kindergarten W-APT and WIDA Screener (for Grades 1-12) to identify English language learners (ELLs). ACCESS for ELLs is given to all ELLs during the annual testing window, which typically lasts from January through mid-March. HCLA-Wake will ensure that a staff person is assigned to take responsibility to contact NCDPI to remind them that the school is in session and to request that they be included in any training for new schools to ensure that staff fully understands the process for identifying ELLs and the testing process and timelines. When a child is suspected of being a ELL, parents will be notified of the State requirements for participation in the program. All necessary steps will be taken to identify students who may be eligible for ELLs services. The NCDPI and federal guidelines and regulations will be followed for identification in order to avoid mis-identification. The shall be the responsibility of the principal/school leader to ensure that the designated ELL staff person has a copy of the NC ELL Identification and Placement Document.

(b) ELL Students at HCLA-Wake will be included in the regular classes with an allowance of support services using designated and approved accommodations for the students. ELL students at HCLA-Wake will have access to the comprehensive education program at the school and will be provided such in the least restrictive instructional environment feasible. Any designated need for accommodations is to be documented for instruction and for administering student assessments.

(c) HCLA-Wake staff will follow the State Board of Education guidelines based on the federal Title III guidance document to determine when the ELL students are eligible to exit the ELL program without any negative consequences. The ELL students' parents/guardians will be involved in the identification, monitoring, and termination decisions of ELL students identified. The staff at HCLA-Wake will have high expectations for all students regardless of their need for special services. ELL students' access to services at HCLA-Wake will always be provided in the least restrictive instructional environment feasible.

(d) HCLA-Wake will use federal funds or federal grants to generate revenue to support a part-time, (possibly contracted) ELL position depending upon the number of identified ELL students. The part-time position may be a shared percentage or set up an independent part-time position. The extent of funding and number of hours designated for the position will be determined by the number of ELL students identified.

The HCLA-Wake leadership will seek professional development assistance for the designated ELL staff person from the NCDPI ESL/Title III team as soon as they person comes on on board as a staff member. According to the NCDPI website, the NCDPI ESL/Title III Team is committed to providing high-quality...
Q42. Explain how the school will identify and meet the needs of gifted students, including the following:

a. Specific research-based instructional programs, practices, strategies, and opportunities the school will employ or provide to enhance their abilities.
b. Plans for monitoring and evaluating the progress and success of gifted students; and means for providing qualified staffing for gifted students.

a. HCLA - Wake will meet the needs of Academically / Intellectually Gifted (AIG) students by first ensuring that they are appropriately identified. The staff will identify students for its Academically/Intellectually Gifted Program using the system devised by Joseph S. Renzulli, Director of the National Research Center on the Gifted and Talented, University of Connecticut -- "A Practical System for Identifying Gifted and Talented Students". Renzulli's system for identifying gifted and talented students is based on a broad range of research that has accumulated over the years on the characteristics of creative and productive individuals (Renzulli, 1986). His research shows that highly productive people are characterized by three interlocking clusters of ability, these clusters being above average (though not necessarily superior) ability, task commitment, and creativity.

Renzulli's identification system suggests that personnel look for a talent pool of approximately 15 percent or higher ability students needing supplementary services, although it can be adjusted depending on the availability of resources. The teaching staff will have to (a) modify the regular curriculum for above average ability students, (b) participate in various kinds of enrichment and mentoring activities, and (c) work cooperatively with other staff with special program assignments.

The Renzulli system has six steps:

Step 1: Test Score Nominations

Step 2: Teacher Nominations

Step 3: Alternate Pathways (parent and peer nominations, tests of creativity, self-nominations)

Step 4: Special Nominations (Safety Valve No. 1) [Special nominations represent the first of two "safety valves"]

Step 5: Notification and Orientation of Parents
Step 6: Action Information Nominations (Safety Valve No. 2)

Renzulli cautions that step 1 be minimized especially when considering primary age students, disadvantaged populations, or culturally different groups.

The staff will employ the steps in Renzulli's research and book. The school will use test results from the State reading and mathematics end-of-year assessments as the first step. Students who score at or above the 90th percentile in reading and/or mathematics end-of-year assessments will be eligible. Teachers will be taught how to differentiate instruction to ensure that AIG students are challenged on a daily basis. AIG students will be encouraged to serve as peer tutors. AIG students' performance on all assessments and their classroom performance will be closely monitored to ensure that their needs are met and that they are being challenged on a continual basis. Services through differentiation or flexible grouping in reading and mathematics will be part of an AIG student's daily learning experiences. If a student is in grade 3 but reads at a grade 5 level, that student will be permitted to do some work in reading groups routinely at the higher grade. All staff at HCLA - Wake will be trained on this differentiated reading method and flexible grouping. In differentiated learning groups, the school gets to serve all kids by meeting them where they are. Teachers can modify, extend, or compact the curriculum using this method.

b. Once enrolled in AIG, students will NOT have to be retested unless it is determined that additional services may be needed. The school will have an annual process in which staff will review the level of services and students' performance. The AIG Team will meet to discuss students' progress in the program and to report students' progress to students and their parents. A master teacher at the school will be designated as the AIG Coordinator. "Maximizing Gifted Students' Potential in the 21st Century" by Brulles and Winebrenner will be used as a guide for services to AIG students.

9.3. Exceptional Children

Q43. Identification and Records
Explain how you will identify students who are enrolled within the charter school that have previously been found to be eligible for special education services or are protected under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

HCLA_Wake planning leadership team and governing board are fully aware of the expectations from State and federal officials that as a North Carolina public charter school, it cannot deny admission to any child eligible for special education services as identified under the federal legislation Individual with Disabilities
HCLA Wake is committed to providing students with disabilities (regardless of whether the child is identified as a scholar with an IEP or Section 504) an appropriate education in the least restrictive environment that will develop them mentally, physically, emotionally, and academically. Given that the current ratio of students with disabilities is approximately 13-14 percent of the overall enrollment of Wake County, it is expected that the ratio for HCLA Wake is similar (14 percent) if not greater than the overall Wake County School ratio.

Q44. Provide the process for identifying students who may be eligible for special education services as identified in the federal 'Child Find' mandate. Be sure to include how student evaluations and assessments will be completed. Include how the school will avoid misidentification of special education students.

HCLA-Wake will identify students with disabilities by accepting referrals for identification as a student with a disability based on a referral for 1) Section 504 which is part of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, a civil rights law that prohibits discrimination of students on the basis of a handicapping condition, or 2) an Exceptional Children's Program in which the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) has a defined list of disabilities. When a teacher, parent, or other involved person suspects that a child may be a child with a disability, he/she will provide in writing the reason for the referral, addressing the specific presenting concerns and the student's current strengths and needs. The referral is to be given to the school principal, the child's teacher or other school professional at the school. The principal at Heritage Collegiate will accept and review all written referrals for student with disabilities; and provide assistance to parents and others who make an oral referral that it must be in writing. The school staff will then conduct the initial evaluation in accordance with NC 1503-2.4 through NC 1503-2.7 which

1) must be conducted; eligibility determined; and for an eligible child, the IEP developed' and placement completed within 90 days of receipt of a written referral; and must determine—a) If the child is a child with a disability under NC 1500-2.4; and

b) the educational needs of the child with a disability.

Heritage will identify students who may be eligible for special education under the federal “Child Find” (NC 1501-2.8) mandate by accepting referrals in the admission process for students with disabilities who reside any place in Wake County. Students’ admission will be based on the application process and the lottery, however, any student with a disability whose application because of their admission number warrants admission will be admitted regardless of their circumstances or the severity of their disability.

Student will be admitted in grades K-8 in the following manner:

(i) All students with disabilities ages 3 to 21 residing in Wake County including children who are homeless, or are wards of the State regardless of the severity of their disability, and who are in need of special education and related services, are identified, located, and evaluated;

(ii) All children with disabilities 3 through 21 placed by their parents in a private school located in Wake County, regardless of the related services are identified, located, and evaluated; and

(iii) A practical method will be developed and implemented by the staff to determine which children are currently receiving special education and related services. Heritage Collegiate will also recognize that "Child Find" must also include:

(1) Children who are suspected of being a child with a disability and in need of special education, even though they are advancing from grade to grade; and are

(2) highly mobile children, including migrant children. As the school recruits students from all over Wake County, using a variety of strategies, the chances of identifying students under "Child Find" and having them enroll at the school is greatly enhanced.

Q45. Provide a plan detailing how the records of students with disabilities and 504 Accommodation plans will be properly managed, including the following:

a. Requesting Records from previous schools
b. Record Confidentiality (on site)
c. Record Compliance (on site)

HCLA's plan for managing the records of students with disabilities who have IEPs and Section 504 accommodations is as follows:

a) If a child with a disability transfers to HCLA-Wake from another school, no release is required to transfer educational records between the old school and Heritage Collegiate, however, the student's records will be kept secure and confidential.

b) In order to maintain the confidentiality of student records at HCLA-Wake the following will be done:

1. Records will be stored in a secure locked location;
c) 1. An access list will be posted on the storage cabinet indicating who, within the school, has permission to view the records.

2. An access signature sheet will be provided in the record for individuals who are not on the posted access list who may need to access students’ records. The access sheet must include the name of the person reviewing the record, the date of the review, and the purpose for the review.

The staff at Heritage Collegiate will be informed of the process for accessing the records of students with disabilities. The special education teacher will assist the school’s principal by overseeing this process for accessing student records to ensure that it is properly implemented and to ensure that student confidentiality is maintained at all times.

The special Education teacher will be responsible for maintaining the confidential records for both students with IEPs and student identified under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

Q46. Exceptional Children’s Programming

Explain how you will meet the learning needs of students with mild, moderate, and severe disabilities in the least restrictive environment possible.

HCLA-Wake proposed to meet the learning needs of students with mild, moderate, and severe disabilities in the least restrictive environment by ensuring that, to the extent feasible, students with disabilities, regardless of level of disability, are included in regular classroom settings.

HCLA-Wake is committed to providing students with disabilities an appropriate education in the least restrictive environment (inclusion) that will develop them mentally, physically, emotionally, and academically. Heritage Collegiate is committed to providing services to students with disabilities in the same way it does for other students attending the school. The staff will use a variety of teaching strategies noted in the educational plan such as differentiated teaching and learning, Leadership training, Blending Learning using the rotational model, “no excuse” learning service based Learning always focusing on the educational needs of the individual student and his/her learning goals as identified in the student’s IEP or Section 504 Plan, if applicable.

Q47. Describe the specific educational programs, strategies, and additional supports the school will provide to ensure a full continuum of services for students with disabilities. How will the school ensure students’ access to the general education curriculum?
HCLA-Wake will employ whichever teaching methods and support strategies determined to be necessary to support the students with disabilities in order for them to become as successful as feasible. The staff will use a variety of teaching strategies noted in the educational plan such as differentiated teaching and learning, Leadership training, Blending Learning using the rotational model, “no excuse” learning service based Learning always focusing on the educational needs of the individual student and his/her learning goals as identified in the student's IEP or Section 504 Plan, if applicable.

Q48. Describe the methods and support systems that will be in place to ensure students with disabilities receive a Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE).

Students with disabilities, regardless of their disability or its severity, will be assured of a Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) at the school. The staff will research all available state and federal regulations, guidance, and resources to ensure that all students enrolled are able to receive a free and appropriate public education regardless of the needs of the students.

Q49. Describe how implementation of the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) will be monitored and reported to the student, parents and relevant staff.

It shall be the expectation of the school leader, that students' IEPs are monitored periodically and especially at the end of each academic quarter by the special education teacher and his/her paraprofessionals to ensure that the scholars are meeting their IEP Goals and to establish new ones if necessary and to determine students' needs at that time. Parents, teachers, relevant staff, and the students should be made aware of any and all student progress as often as is feasible but officially never less than quarterly.

Q50. Describe the proposed plan for providing related services and to have qualified staffing adequate for the anticipated special needs population.

All related services needed by students with disabilities such as transportation, developmental, corrective, and supportive services in order to develop them mentally, physically, emotionally, academically, and vocationally will be made available to students enrolled at the school, on an as needed basis. The governing board and staff will pursue all available local, state, and federal guidance, regulations, and resources to ensure that the educational needs of students with disabilities at the school are met. Related services specifically relate to services such as but are not limited to: speech-language pathology and auditory services, interpreting services, psychological services, physical and occupational therapy, recreation including therapeutic recreation, early identification and assessment of students with disabilities in children, counseling services, including services for diagnostic and evaluation purposes. Q51. Describe the student performance standards for the school as a whole.

HCLA-Wake will have the following performance standards:

1. The school will meet the overall state standard for growth by the end of 2023-2024.
2. The school will meet the overall state standard for growth each year after 2023-2024.
3. The school will each year have an overall percent proficient in ELA that is equivalent to the State's effective 2023-2024.
4. The school will each year have an overall percent proficient in mathematics that is equivalent to the State's effective 2023-2024.
5. The school will each year have an overall percent proficient in science that is equivalent to the State's effective 2023-2024.

Q52. Explain the use of any evaluation tool or assessment that the proposed charter school will use in addition to any state or federally mandated tests. Describe how this data will be used to drive instruction and improve the curriculum over time for the benefit of students.

The HCLA-Wake leadership team will work with its teachers to build their skills in constructing meaningful and effective on-going classroom assessments to monitor their students’ performance on specific units, goals, objectives, content, and concepts. Teachers will be encouraged to use a variety of formats for teacher-made assessments to ensure that all students have access to the assessments. Some online assessments will also be encouraged. Teacher training will be conducted during their professional learning communities (PJC) sessions so all teachers at grade level will be trained on the process during the same sessions and to discuss the value of working collaboratively to create meaningful and effective classroom assessments. The planning team believes that on-going classroom assessments that are meaningful and effective produce the most useful real-time data that teachers can be used timely to redirect instruction and ultimately to impact student learning.

In addition, to keep the governing board and school administrators as well as the public and others aware of student performance, the school will purchase or participate in an assessment item database or contract with a commercial entity to assess all students using quarterly, standardized, multiple-choice benchmark assessments that will produce data to inform students’ performance on a quarterly basis.
Q53. Explain the policies and standards for promoting students, including students with special needs, from one grade level to the next. Discuss how and when promotion criteria will be communicated to parents and students.

HCLA-Wake will generate promotion standards and a promotion policy that will be evaluated and approved by the school's governing board. The policy will address how students are to perform at a grade level in order to be promoted to the next grade level including required student performance at grade 8 in order to be recommended for high school. It will also include a section on promoting students identified as students with a disability on a case by case basis which will address students requirements related to their performance on meeting their IEP goals. Promotion criteria will be communicated to parents at the first meeting of parents (PTSO) of enrolled students at the school. A copy of the board approved promotion policy will be provided to each parent at that time. Also, a copy of the school's promotion policy will be included in the school's family handbook which will be available online on the school's website.

Per North Carolina General Statute 115C-288, the principle of the school, using all available student information, will make the final decision on grading and classifying students except as provided in G.S. 115C.83.7 related to State-mandated student promotion standards at grade 3...

Q54. Provide the public charter school's exit standards for graduating ALL students. These standards should set forth what students in the last grade served will know and be able to do. Be sure to include plans for students at risk of dropping out.

HCLA-Wake will use state curriculum standards as guidelines for creating exit standards for students at grade 8 at the school. The graduation standard for grade 8 will require students to successfully complete their year-long grade academic project, meet the school attendance policy, have a passing grade of "D" in either science or social studies, and pass at least 50 percent of their electives courses. Students in the last grade (grade 8) should be able to demonstrate proficiency (Achievement Level III or higher) on the state-mandated assessments in ELA, Mathematics, and Science. These standards apply to all students including student who are at risk of failing the grade. Students will be given options to complete their course requirements at grade 8 by attending a school-sponsored summer school academic program. Students graduating from grade 8 at HCLA will be awarded a certificate indicating that he/she has successfully completed the requirements of Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy and are therefore eligible for enrollment in high school.

9.5. School Culture and Discipline

Q55. Describe the culture or ethos of the proposed school. Explain how it will promote a positive academic environment and reinforce student intellectual and social development.
At HCLA, we understand the critical role that school culture plays in the academic success of our scholars. We will be a trauma-informed, PBIS, no-excuse school that uses the AVID School-wide Framework. At HCLA, we focus on "growth mindset", setting SMART goals, scheduling a Culture Camp prior to the opening of school, and continuing to make culture/character/leadership development/mindfulness an integral part of the school day. We will also focus on "culture" during our Saturday Academies. Parents will be an integral part of this process. Parent engagement, at HCLA, will afford us the opportunity to train parents on the culture for the school. At HCLA, scholars will trained on culture with the same level of intensity as the teachers/staff.

Comments:

Q56. Explain how you will create and implement this culture for students, teachers, administrators, and parents starting from the first day of school. Describe the plan for acculturating students who enter the school mid-year.

For the first entering body of students, a Summer Culture Camp orientation session is held during the week prior to the opening of school. Each student at the school will be provided with a "HCLA Student Planner" that contains information about the school and the school culture. Rallies will be held at the beginning of assembly meetings, information will be on the website and teachers will be encouraged to teach and allude to the school's beliefs, customs, and practices throughout the week especially during "morning meetings". Posters will be placed strategically along the walls in the hallways and in the classrooms and special art rooms and computer rooms. Teachers will be provided information about the school culture during "PLCs", professional development sessions at the beginning and throughout the school year. Parents and incoming students who enter the school mid-year will get a full dose of information about the school's culture and ethos at the time of registration and enrollment. Once enrolled, the students will get refreshing information during all assemblies and school gatherings throughout the school year.

Q57. Provide a brief narrative that delineates how student conduct will be governed at the proposed charter school and how this plan aligns with the overall mission and proposed Education Plan of the charter school. Be sure to include:

a. Practices the school will use to promote effective discipline.
b. A preliminary list and definitions of the offenses which may result in suspension or expulsion of students.
c. An explanation of how the school will take into account the rights of students with disabilities in regard to these actions that may or must lead to suspension and expulsion.
d. Policies and procedures disseminating due process rights, including grievance procedures, for when a student is suspended or expelled.

At HCLA-Wake, the behavior of our scholars is a top priority. The school's discipline's policy will support and reinforce the mission of the school. Scholars' commitment to the school's discipline policy lead to a nurturing school environment that sets the stage for engagement and academic excellence and success. The staff is committed to upholding high expectation for students and themselves. As such, they remain responsible for establishing a positive school culture that motivates students. The staff will model and identify appropriate conduct and behaviors in varying environments throughout the course of the school day and academic setting. Learning how to transition behavior in various settings remains a valuable component of the versatility required of students as they transition through life. The school will set high standards students, families, and staff in order to educate students as academic scholars. To ensure that scholars at the school are able to become college graduates career professionals who are world leaders, who can make worthy contributions and whose decisions are made based on their moral beliefs and integrity, students must learn discipline. They must remain focused in order to access the challenging, rigorous curriculum and set of high expectations set forth at the school. This can only be accomplished with the active participation of the entire educational community and staff affiliated with the school.

A. In addition, staff and scholars at the school will be trained on and a program will be implemented on the sustained use of Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (PBIS). This strategy will help staff and scholars shift from a punishment-based system of "discipline" to one that actively teaches and promotes student engagement in desired behavior when making decisions related to student behavior. A sample draft copy of the of the HCLA PBIS handbook is attached.
Key Ideas of PBIS

1. System Model: The PBIS efforts are focused on ensuring that HCLA has effective and efficient systems in place to respond to the behavior of scholars. The PBIS Team will set and promote school-wide behavior expectations, reorganize the school's data systems to be more useful, reexamine our office discipline referral system and will work to improve our classroom support system.

2. A Team Approach: PBIS Teams are established to have representatives from teacher(s), administration, and support staff. The PBIS Team works to assure the application of PBIS Principles. The team is a resource for all other staff within the school who are concerned about effective teaching and promoting the desired behavior of scholars and how to effectively address scholar inappropriate behavior.

3. Staff defines with specifics each school-wide expectation for each school setting.

4. Staff actively teaches the expected appropriate social behaviors as they would teach academic concepts.

5. Staff promotes desired behaviors through the use of reinforcement.

6. The Data-based approach. The PBIS Team uses data to gauge how well the scholars are doing, and to measure the impact of HCLA's discipline policies and strategies.

All HCLA teachers will play a vital role in the implementation of PBIS on HCLA's Campus. The teachers' responsibilities are as follows:

- Pre-teaching expectations using the Leader in Me/ PBIS Matrix,
• Explaining consequences to off task behavior
• Modeling and teaching "Leader in Me" 7 Habits lessons
• Providing a risk-free, consistent classroom environment, and
• Asking for help from the PBIS Team with the "frequent fliers".

While learning other disciplines, scholars will also be expected to learn the HCLA Student Code of Conduct. The following delineates the HCLA Code of Conduct scholars are expected to follow at all times:

(1) Scholars are to focus on their academic responsibilities during school hours,

(2) Scholars are to be respectful and kind to each other, to the staff, to their families, and to people in their community,

(3) Scholars are to adhere to the dress code for scholars outline in the HCLA Family/Student Handbook

(4) Scholars are to attend class regularly, arrive on time,

(5) Scholars are to accept responsibility for helping to maintain the school's physical environment and culture,

(6) Scholars are to follow the golden rule at all times, "Do Unto Others as you would have them to do unto you".

B. Scholars may suspended or reprimanded for the following offenses:

(1) Cause or attempt to cause or threaten to cause physical injury to another person,

(2) Possess, sell, or otherwise furnish any firearm, knife, explosive, or other dangerous object,

(3) Unlawfully possess, use, sell, or otherwise furnish, or be under the influence of any controlled substance, alcoholic beverage, or an intoxicant of any kind while at school,

(4) Unlawfully offer, arrange or negotiate, to sell any controlled substance or an intoxicant of any kind, land then either sell, deliver or otherwise furnish to any person on campus
another liquid, substance, or material and represent the liquid, substance, or materials as a controlled substance, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant,

(5) Commit robbery or extortion,

(6) Cause or attempt to cause damage to school property or private property that belongs to others,

(7) Steal or attempt to steal school property, or the private property of others,

(8) Possess or use tobacco, or any product containing tobacco, hemp, marijuana, edible or chewable

(10) Unlawfully offer, arrange or negotiate to sell any drug paraphernalia,

(11) Disrupt classroom or school-sponsored activities

(12) Knowingly receives stolen property, and

(13) Knowingly participate in gang activity

C. Scholars with disabilities may be suspended for inappropriate behavior while at school but school leaders can do so only by following State and federal regulations and guidelines.

D. Scholars who are suspended or reprimanded have the right to appeal the principal's decision to the executive director of the school and, if not satisfied, to the governing board which makes the final decision.

The board member so elected shall serve the unexpired term of the the board member that he/she replaces.

The principal shall grant the conference within five (5) school days following receipt of the request. The principal will state in writing his/her position on the issue to the student, parent/guardian or employee within five (5) school days following the conference.
If the grievance is not resolved at the principal's level, the student, parent/guardian or employee may appeal the principal's decision in writing to the executive director of the school. The appeal must be made within five (5) school days following receipt of the written response from the principal. The executive director shall review the grievance within five (5) school days following receipt of the appeal. If the executive director or his/her designee determines that additional time is needed to develop the factual record, the grievance may be put on hold for fifteen (15) additional days (or longer if by mutual agreement) to allow time for an investigation. A written response shall be made to the student, parent/guardian or employee, and principal from the executive director within ten (10) school days following the review.

If the grievance is not resolved at the level of the executive director, the student, parent/guardian or employee may appeal the executive director's decision in writing to the Board of Directors of the school by submitting the written appeal to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The written appeal must be made within 10 school days following the student, parent/guardian or employee's response from the executive director of the school. The board shall offer a final written decision within ten (10) days. If the grievant fails to comply within the time periods or other procedures outlined in this policy, the grievant waives any further rights of appeal and the grievance will be considered resolved. The grievance may be voluntarily withdrawn by the grievant at any level or time. Once a grievance is withdrawn it cannot be reopened. If at any time during the grievance process the school grants the grievant the relief requested, the grievance shall be terminated at that time.

The principal shall disseminate the grievance policy to students, families and employees at the beginning of each school year.

10.3. Staffing Plans, Hiring, and Management

Q88. Projected Staff
Complete the staffing chart below outlining your staffing projections. Adjust or add functions and titles as needed to reflect variations in school models. Be mindful that your predicted administration and staff match the projected enrollment noted in Section I, course offerings, and align with the proposed budget.

The Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake completed projected staffing chart for the planning year and for the planning year and the five operational years is attached.
Q89. Staffing Plans, Hiring, and Management. Explain the board's strategy for recruiting and retaining high-performing teachers.

Heritage Collegiate's governing board and its administrative leadership staff, together, will devise job descriptions for teachers at the school that reflect the school's mission and instructional focus. The job descriptions and advertisements will specify what teachers are expected to be individuals who have at least a bachelor's degree in the area of certification and believe in the public charter school concept. They must be progressive thinkers who are capable of functioning in a climate of "no-excuses", high expectations, and innovative ideas. The ads will specify that teachers at Heritage Collegiate must be committed to the mission of the school and willing to learn the instructional strategies to be employed at the school such as blended learning and differentiated teaching/learning models. Because the school wishes to hire high performing, highly qualified and highly desirable teachers, a $1,200 annual supplement will be provided to each professional staff member to compensate teachers for the extend school day (8:00-4:30 p.m.). The goal is to hire highly qualified teachers who have some experience, who have at least a bachelor degree, and North Carolina certification in the grade level and content they are expected to teach. Also, the school will look to hire teachers who are motivated to teach motivated students. The staff for Heritage Collegiate is projected to align with the projected enrollment, the school's mission, the educational plan and programming, and the projected budget for the school. The governing board will offer professional development for staff at the beginning of the school year and on an ongoing basis and will ensure that experienced and inexperienced teachers are supported daily. Instructional teams will be encouraged and developed across grades and within content to ensure a system of mentoring, coaching, and support among teachers employed at the school.

Q90. If already identified, describe the principal/head of school candidate and explain why this individual is well-qualified to lead the proposed school in achieving its mission. Provide specific evidence that demonstrates the capacity to design, launch, and manage a high-performing charter school. If the
The principal for Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake has not yet been identified. The school candidate for principal will be an experienced highly-qualified individual whose belief in public charter education aligns with the school's mission and purpose. It is expected that the highly qualified school leader will be recruited during the planning year which will be 2021-22. It is expected that the school leader has a background in education administration, is familiar with or has worked in a charter school setting, is intelligent, personable, is a leader, manager, works well leading professional adult and is a progressive thinker who believes in digital learning as a major component of the student's teaching and learning process.

Q91. Attach in Appendix O the School Leader's Resume
If school leader has been identified, include the school leader's one-page resume in Appendix O.

Comments:
The school leader is not yet identified.

Evidence:

Q 175_No School Leader Identified

Q92. Provide a description of the relationship that will exist between the charter school employees and the school's board of directors.

The relationship that will exist between Heritage Collegiate's employees and the non-profit board is that all employees will be employees of the board of directors even though only the Executive director and the principal will actually be recruited and hired by the board. It will be the responsibility of the Executive Director and the principal to recruit and hire other staff members. They will develop and use a school team to interview prospective applicants for all positions after developing uniformed interview questions to be asked of all applicants for a specific position. The school's leadership will then conduct the criminal background checks, check the applicant's references, and make a recommendation to the governing board that will give the final approval for the hiring and rejection (if applicable) of the individuals. This employment practice applies to all employees of the school whether they are contracted staff, paraprofessional, or professional.
Q93. Outline the school's proposed salary range and employment benefits for all levels of employment.

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake will use the salaries specified in the most recent state salary schedule to hire professional, support, and operational employees along with a supplement in order to be competitive with Wake County Schools' salaries. A system of benefits will be determined during the planning year to ensure that the school's benefits are competitive as well since the school may not be eligible for the State Retirement System or the State Health plan.

Q94. Provide the procedures for handling employee grievances and/or termination

Heritage Collegiate's grievance policy for employees involves using open communication as the initial approach to settling any issue or dispute between any employees at any level. If that does not resolve the matter, then the employee should first seek to resolve his/her complaint with the principal at Heritage Collegiate through an informal discussion. If such a discussion does not resolve the matter informally, and the employee believes that his/her complaint should become a grievance, then the employee takes a written copy of his/her complaint to the Executive Director at Heritage Collegiate at which time a written complaint of the employee's grievance is discussed. If the matter cannot be resolved at this stage, then the employee may initiate a formal grievance given to the executive director which is referred by the Executive Director to the governing board to resolve the complaint. In cases of employee termination, the Executive Director makes a written report to the governing board requesting a termination decision by the board related to the specific employee with all information and documentation related to the incident/matter filed with the recommendation. The governing board at Heritage Collegiate has the final authority to resolve employee grievances and to terminate employees which is usually conducted during a close session of the board of director's meeting.

Q95. Identify any positions that will have dual responsibilities and the funding source for each position

In order to ensure that the school carries out effectively its mission and purpose, the planning team for HCLA-Wake hopes not to have positions with dual responsibilities. However, if the school does hire dual responsibilities employees, the school leadership will ensure that the financial records are well and appropriately documented if the employees' salary is paid by multiple sources.

Q96. Describe the plans to have qualified staffing adequate for the anticipated special needs population and means for providing qualified staffing for EL and gifted students

Heritage Collegiate will hire a special education resource teacher for each group of 40 students. Once the number rises to 60, then a second special education teacher will be added. This is expected to occur in the second year of the school's operation even though the school's model for providing services to students with disabilities will be one of inclusion and in the least restrictive environment possible.
A general education core teacher will be designated to serve as the ELL coordinator for the school. A small stipend of approximately $400 annually will be recommended for these extra duties. A highly qualified master teacher will be given the duties of AIG coordinator with a small stipend of approximately $400 annually provided to support the teacher in this role.

Q97. Provide a narrative detailing the roles and responsibilities, qualifications, and appropriate licenses that each position must have to be hired by the school's board of directors and effectively perform the job function(s).

The professional positions at Heritage Collegiate will be expected to have at least a bachelor's degree (with a master's desired) with experience in the area(s) in which they are expected to teach. They are expected to have a current North Carolina teaching certificate for the grades and the content area they are expected to teach. They must bring a set of instructional delivery strategies that are consistent with meeting the needs of students. They must be willing to "think outside of the box", be open to innovative ideas, and believe in the public charter school concept. They must be able to teach effectively and assess students to check for their level of learning and understanding. The executive director, the principal, and the school counselor are expected to have at least a master's degree in an area of expertise even though the governing board of the school may choose to employ candidates with less credentials for the roles of executive director and school principal. These leadership positions must have the necessary training, experience, and skills in leadership as well as the skills and the ability to direct, motivate, and evaluate staff. The school's counselor must have at least a master's degree in counseling. The counselor must be able to work with students in all areas of character development, personal counseling, group counseling and other aspect of student's personal growth and development. The paraprofessional staff and the office clerical staff must all have at least a high school diploma with skills in word processing, writing, light bookkeeping, spreadsheet development and usage, and presentation skills using software such as Microsoft PowerPoint. In addition, they should know how to use all technology at the school including the office and classroom equipment. All staff members must be able to consistently perform effectively in their respective positions and expect to be evaluated formally at least annually with observations and ongoing evaluations occurring as determined to be necessary by the leadership of the school. All positions expected to be employed at the school will be reflected in the school's projected budget.

10.4. Staff Evaluations and Professional Development

Q98. Identify the positions responsible for maintaining teacher license requirements and professional development.
Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy's teachers and counselors will be required to maintain professional licenses and meet the professional development requirements specified by North Carolina and federal laws to ensure that they are highly qualified for their positions.

Q99. Provide a detailed plan noting how the school will mentor, retain and evaluate staff in a format that matches the school's mission and educational program. Plan should also describe how the school will meet the teacher certification and licensure requirements for teachers as prescribed by state and federal law. Be sure this overview matches with the projected staff and funding of the proposed budget section.

Heritage Collegiate plans to mentor, train, and evaluate teachers using a variety of strategies necessary to support teachers to enable them to be successful facilitators of learning for all of its students. Even the teacher evaluation process will involve noting areas where improvement is required and planning for professional intervention so that teachers are empowered to be effective teachers.

The school's plan for professional development begins as soon as an individual is interviewed for his/her position. In an effort to determine the potential strengths and areas where development is needed, potential staff will be asked about their skills, interests, qualifications during the interviewing process. The next phase of professional development will occur at the point at which staff is hired. When candidates are given approval for employment, they will be informed that they will be given copies of three books that they will be expected to read in preparation for employment at Heritage Collegiate: "Teach Like a Champion" by Doug Lemov, "A Practical System for Identifying Gifted and Talented Students" by Joseph S. Renzulli, and "Maximizing Gifted Students Potential in the 21st Century" by Dina Brulles and Susan Winebrenner. In addition, at the beginning of the school year, just prior to school opening, all staff members (including the clerical staff) will come together for at least three days to receive professional development in all areas of determined need in relation to the school's mission and expectations of staff which shall include to review and understand the following: working in a "no excuse" instructional environment and a culture of high expectations for everyone including staff and students, the teaching and assessment of the State's Standards in ELA and in mathematics, language immersion experiences for students in Spanish and Mandarin Chinese; the Blended Learning Rotational Model; AVID College Preparatory Program; Differentiated Teaching and Learning; A discussion of the three assigned readings; Pyramid of Success character education Services Program by Coach John Wooden; KidLead by Dr. Alan Nelson on teaching students to become leaders; Socratic Seminars, Integrating life coaching strategies for student success; Latin as a component of ELA; Working with English language Learners, Section 504, and IDEA requirements for students with disabilities; Debate Across the Curriculum; Principles of Project-Based and Service-Based Learning; and integrating Critical thinking strategies into instructional delivery. External experts in their respective fields will be brought in initially to direct the professional development and training in areas where no
The core components of the professional development activities will be provided initially during three days at the beginning of the academic year. The professional development provided initially and in the ongoing sessions will focus on helping teachers and support staff to understand the educational programs and instructional strategies teachers are expected to employ in order to meet the needs of the students at the school. Professional development will be offered internally and externally and in partnership with the local educational institutions addressed in item two and in partnership/collaboration with other local schools, if feasible. Professional development activities will always align with the goals, mission, education programming, budget projections, and school's expectations as well as the needs identified by staff as areas where development is required in order for them to be successful. The needs and focus of the staff's subsequent professional development activities will be determined by the school's instructional leadership team and the school's leadership to be approved by the school's governing board.
The schedule and focus of the professional development activities have been outlined in item 2; however, professional development at Heritage Collegiate will be planned to address the needs of staff in order to meet the challenging aspect of the curricular programming and the innovative instructional delivery strategies proposed in the educational program. An instructional leadership team will be developed at the school to work with the school's leadership to ensure that the professional development needs of the staff are addressed throughout the academic year always beginning each year with the pre-school opening professional development activities.

Q102. Describe the expected number of days/hours for professional development throughout the school year, and explain how the school's calendar, daily schedule, and staffing structure accommodate this plan.

The school's academic calendar will reflect the days devoted to professional development. Initially, it will begin with approximately five days at the beginning of the school year and at least 3 half days (early release days for students) as needed throughout the academic year. All professional development days will be noted on the school calendar. The days are reflected on the school calendar and the costs are reflected in the projected budget for the school. The daily schedule will have to accommodate professional development activities only on three designated days throughout the academic year. The staffing structure supports all teachers being involved in the professional development activities at the beginning of the school year and on the three early release days.

In addition, the school's plan for professional development begins as soon as an individual is interviewed for his/her position. In an effort to determine the potential strengths and areas where development is needed, potential staff will be asked about their skills, interests, qualifications during the interviewing process. The next phase of professional development will occur at the point at which staff is hired. When candidates are given approval for employment, they will be informed that they will be given copies of three books that they will be expected to read in preparation for employment at Heritage Collegiate: "Teach Like a Champion" by Doug Lemov, "A Practical System for Identifying Gifted and Talented Students" by Joseph S. Renzulli, and "Maximizing Gifted Students Potential in the 21st Century" by Dina Brulles and Susan Winebrenner. In addition, at the beginning of the school year, just prior to school opening, all staff members (including the clerical staff) will come together for at least three days to receive professional development in all areas of determined need in relation to the school's mission and expectations of staff which shall include to review and understand the following: working in a "no excuse" instructional environment and a culture of high expectations for everyone including staff and students, the teaching and assessment of the State's Standards in ELA and in mathematics, language immersion experiences for students in Spanish and Mandarin Chinese; the Blended Learning Rotational Model; AVID College Preparatory Program; Differentiated Teaching and Learning; A discussion of the three assigned readings; Pyramid of Success character education Services Program by Coach John Wooden; KidLead by Dr. Alan Nelson on teaching students to become leaders; Socratic Seminars, Integrating life coaching strategies for student success; Latin as a component of ELA; Working with English language Learners, Section 504, and IDEA requirements for students with disabilities; Debate Across the Curriculum; Principles of Project-Based and Service-Based Learning; and integrating Critical thinking strategies into instructional delivery. External experts in their respective fields will be brought in initially to direct the professional development and training in areas where no staff is skilled to lead. Paraprofessionals will also be expected to participate in the training. Heritage Collegiate plans to work in partnership/collaboration with local universities and community colleges and to the extent feasible, other local schools, to sponsor professional development opportunities for educators at the school and in the community. Continuing Education units of credit will be provided to staff for their participation in the scheduled professional development activities.

10.5. Marketing, Recruitment, and Enrollment

Reaching the full capacity for enrollment will be critical to obtaining the necessary financial resources to keep your school viable and operating efficiently. In addition, it is required by law that charter schools provide equal access to all students. Read the charter school state statute regarding admissions 115C-218.45 carefully.

Q103. Marketing PlanMarketing to potential students and parents is vital to the survival of a charter school. Provide a plan indicating how the school will market to potential students and parents in order to reasonably reflect the racial/ethnic and demographic composition of the district in which the charter school will be located or of the special population the school seeks to serve: (G.S.115C-218.45(e)).

The school's planning team Heritage Collegiate will market its program to all families and students within the general Northeast Wake County community and the surrounding areas to ensure that the school begins and remains filled to capacity. The efforts of the marketing team will involve ensuring diversity of the staff and the students at Heritage Collegiate. Marketing strategies will include reaching out to the entire community to ensure that all ethnic groups within the general area are made aware that the school is in existence and available to serve all students in the Northeastern Wake County and the surrounding
The planning team will market to the parents, families, and members of the community using a variety of strategies such as placing public service announcements in local newspapers and with the local cable companies. Also, the planning team will develop pamphlets and other literature about the school to disseminate at local churches, highly attended social functions and events in the community, local day care centers including the Wake County Preschool Program, and local chapters of prominent sororities and fraternities, and local organizations in the community such as the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. In addition, announcements will be placed in the local newspaper, on Heritage Collegiate's website and its social media networks including Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter. In addition, Heritage Collegiate will sponsor "Open-House Events" periodically throughout the planning year in which parents will be invited to visit the school and learn about the school's programming academic focus. Heritage Collegiate's marketing plan will be devised to ensure that all students have equal opportunity for access to the school. In addition to all of the above mentioned strategies, the planning team will also go door-to-door to inform families and parents of existence of the school.

Q104. Describe how parents and other members of the community will be informed about the school.

The planning team will market to the parents, families, and members of the community using a variety of strategies such as placing public service announcements in local newspapers and with the local cable companies. Also, the planning team will develop pamphlets and other literature about the school to disseminate at local churches, highly attended social functions and events in the community, local day care centers including the Wake County Preschool Program, and local chapters of prominent sororities and fraternities, and local organizations in the community such as the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. about the school's programming academic focus. Heritage Collegiate's marketing plan will be devised to ensure that all students have equal opportunity for access to the school. In addition to all of the above mentioned strategies, the planning team will also go door-to-door to inform the community, families, and parents about the existence of the school.

At Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy, we will go beyond communicating with parents for informational purposes. We will engage our parents. Parents will be encouraged to attend Board Meetings. We will host Parent Academies during the last hour of each Saturday Academy for scholars. Parents will be encouraged to do the background check required to volunteer at the school. We want to meet with our parents face-to-face. We want them to see our school in action. Engagement requires intention. We will make parent engagement a priority.

Q105. Describe your plan to recruit students during the planning year, including the strategies, activities, events, and responsible parties. Include a timeline and plan for student recruitment/engagement and enrollment, with benchmarks that will indicate and demonstrate suitable recruitment and enrollment practices over time.

Many of the school's marketing and recruitment team's efforts will be fully implemented during the planning year when the limited staff of HCLA-Wake will use every available recruitment strategy, set up information stations all around the community including the two North Raleigh Malls, give presentations to local churches, and every family event held in Northeast Wake County including neighborhood Flea markets. We will also visit local strip malls and any other place where families gather for recreation or to access information.

Q106. Describe how students will be given an equal opportunity to attend the school. Specifically, describe any plans for outreach to: families in poverty, academically low-achieving students, students with disabilities, English learners, and other students at-risk of academic failure. If your school has a specific area of focus, describe the plan to market that focus.

During the planning year HCLA-Wake staff will attend churches, go into low income housing developments and neighborhood activity centers low income housing communities and student hangouts in the North Wake County communities to ensure that the school's marketing and outreach reaches every family and every child that may be interested in attending the school.

10.6. Parent and Community Involvement

Q108. Describe how you will communicate with and engage parents and community members from the time that the school is approved through opening.

At Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy, we will go beyond communicating with parents for informational purposes. We will engage our parents. Parents will be encouraged to attend Board Meetings. The staff will host Parent Academies during the last hour of each Saturday Academy for scholars. Parents will be encouraged to do the background check required to volunteer at the school. We want to meet with our parents face-to-face. We want them to see our school in action. Engagement requires intention. We will make parent engagement a priority. Parents will be encouraged to have an active PTSO organization which the school will acknowledge and support and participate in as is feasible. Parents will be encouraged to visit the school throughout the year and will be treated with respect anytime they visit the school. Prior to the initial opening of the school, parents will be encouraged to visit the school and inquire about what it will offer and how it will differ from traditional schools in the community.

Q109. Describe how you will engage parents in the life of the public charter school. Explain the plan for building engaging partnerships between the family and school that strengthen support for student learning.

The staff at Heritage Collegiate will communicate with parents extensively during the marketing, recruitment, and admission processes regarding the school's expectation for parents to volunteer and engage themselves in their children's learning at every phase. The process of engaging potential parents has already begun but is expected to intensify once the school is approved and throughout the planning year and each subsequent academic year. Heritage Collegiate's planning team and governing board believe that parents and the school are partners in directing student learning and school activities.

Parents, families, and community members will be encouraged to participate in all school events and school celebrations at Heritage Collegiate throughout the academic year including its open house celebrations. In fact, it will be expected that the school's leadership will work with and support the staff in encouraging parental engagement at the school by reaching out to parents/guardians and always making them feel welcome regardless of their reason for being at the school. Parents and Community members will be encouraged to volunteer their time and resources at the school though only after a criminal background check has been conducted. Parents will be expected to support their students on community field trips and other activities sponsored by the school.

Additionally, parents/guardians are expected to attend parent/teacher academic conferences to discuss setting goals, developing PEPs for students and monitoring students' progress which will be scheduled at publicly announced intervals throughout the year. Parent/teacher conferences will be scheduled to accommodate the schedules of parents with some of them occurring in the evenings to accommodate the work schedules of parents, as needed. For students with disabilities such as students with an Individualized Education Program (IEP) and students requiring Section 504 and English Language Learners (ELL) support, the students parents/guardians will be encouraged and expected to attend all meetings where student learning goals are being set and students' progress is being noted and documented towards those goals. Parents and guardians will be reminded frequently that they are partners in developing and creating support for the students' learning and successes.

Heritage Collegiate will have a website in which student information such as homework, special projects, scheduled activities and special events will be posted for the school in general. In addition, teachers will have specific website designations to support students in their efforts to learn and to be successful and to track classroom assignments, designated homework, and other activities.

Q110. If already identified, describe any programs you will offer to parents and/or the community and how they may benefit students and support the school mission and vision.

The school staff will be trained on feeling comfortable with parents visiting and engaging in activities at the school.

10.7. Admissions Policy

Q111. Provide the school's proposed policies and the procedures for admitting students to the proposed charter school, including:

- Tentative dates for the open enrollment application period, enrollment deadlines and procedures. *Please be advised schools cannot accept applications until after final approval from the SBE.
- Clear policies and procedures detailing the open enrollment lottery plan, including policies... regarding statutory permitted student enrollment preferences.

c. Clear policies and procedures for student waiting lists, withdrawals, re-enrollment, and transfers.
d. Explanation of the purpose of any pre-admission activities (if any) for students or parents.
e. Clear policies and procedures for student withdrawals and transfers.

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Proposed Admissions and Lottery Application Policy

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy (HCLA) is a tuition free public charter school located in Bertie County North Carolina. Any child who is qualified under the laws of North Carolina for admission to a public school is qualified for admission to Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy as long as the student is a resident of North Carolina. HCLA does not limit admission to students based on intellectual ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, athletic ability, disability, race, creed, gender, national origin, religion, or ancestry. The school shall be subject to any court-ordered desegregation plan in effect for the local school administrative unit. Admission to HCLA is not limited to students of Bertie County but includes attendance areas from all over the state.

An exception is that HCLA may refuse admission to any student who has been expelled or suspended from a public school, or from a private school for any conduct that would have warranted suspension or expulsion from any public school under G.S. 115C-390.5 through G.S. 115C-390.11. Students will be refused admission to HCLA until the period of suspension or expulsion for that student has expired at the previous school.

A. Enrollment Priorities

HCLA makes every effort to enroll students that reflect the diversity of the general population of the community in which it is located.

HCLA may give enrollment priority in certain instances as stated in G.S. 115C-218.45 which grants the following enrollment priorities that will be implemented in the manner described below:

1. Siblings of currently enrolled students who were admitted to HCLA in a previous year. The term "siblings" includes any of the following who reside in the same household: full siblings, half siblings, step-siblings, and children residing in a family foster home.

2. Should there be more siblings than there are open slots in any given grade, a lottery will be held to randomly select the siblings who receive a slot in the school. The lottery will follow the same procedures as outlined below for the school-wide lottery and will be held on the same date, but prior to, the schoolwide lottery. Any siblings who do not receive an enrollment slot will be placed at the top of the grade-level waiting list for the school, in the order their names were drawn in the lottery.

3. The following groups are limited to no more than fifteen percent (15%) of the school's total enrollment, unless a waiver is granted by the State Board of Education:

a. Children of the HCLA's full-time employees and

b. Children of HCLA's Board of Directors.

Should the above two groups of students exceed 15% of the school's total enrollment, priority will be given as follows: i. Each employee and director (in Year 1 only) shall be granted one enrollment slot. ii. Names of any additional children will be entered into a lottery. Names will be drawn at random until the 15% cap is reached. iii. Any children not selected in the lottery may be entered into the school-wide lottery with equal opportunity of selection as any other applicant to the school. In these cases, the parents/guardians shall submit a completed application within the Open Enrollment Period. iv. In the following year, unenrolled siblings may be given priority under the sibling preference (number 1 above).

4. A student who was enrolled in the HCLA within the two previous school years but left the school because of the family's relocation to a community where HCLA was not accessible, a competitive admission residential program; or because of the vocational opportunities, including Active Duty, of the student's parent.

Evidence of participation in an academic program abroad, residential program, or vocational opportunities must be provided to the HCLA prior to the end of the Open Enrollment Period. In any case where the validity of the academic program or vocational opportunity is in question, the Executive Director shall have the authority to investigate documentation supporting the program or opportunity and issuing a determination of the student's eligibility for the enrollment priority.

5. A student who was enrolled in another charter school in the State in the previous school year that does not offer the student's next grade level.

B. Enrollment Period and Applications

HCLA will establish an enrollment period annually. The enrollment period will generally be established consistent or similar to the enrollment periods of other schools in the area, and will be long enough to provide a reasonable opportunity for applicants to submit applications, and will be no less than four weeks. The enrollment period will be posted on HCLA's website each year. HCLA will use a standard application form (Attachment) which will be made available in English and other languages upon request. Applications may be completed on HCLA’s website or requested by mail, email, or in person. Completed applications may be submitted by mail or hand-delivered to HCLA addresses noted on the application form.

HCLA will maintain a record of all applications received. Upon receipt, each completed application will be assigned a number and logged in with a record of the date and time of receipt, and the name, grade, and contact information of the applicant. All application forms will be maintained in a locked file at the school site. Applicants may contact HCLA to verify receipt of their application.

HCLA relies upon accurate and truthful information on the application forms. If a parent or guardian provides false or incorrect information on the application form, such as an incorrect grade level in order to obtain a better chance of enrollment, the application form will be considered invalid and the student will not be entered into the lottery. The parent/guardian will be notified of HCLA’s determination not to enter the application in the lottery.

In a case where an application is submitted, the student is granted admission, and the parent accepts enrollment, and it is subsequently determined that the student is enrolled for the wrong grade through no fault or inaccurate information (e.g., student is retained or double-promoted), a determination shall be made between the parent/guardian and the Executive Director as to the appropriate placement for the child. The Executive Director has the authority to make the final determination of grade placement. In the case that the appropriate grade placement is not available at the School (e.g., 9th grade), the Executive Director may recommend or require that the parent/guardian withdraw the enrollment application.

Q112. Weighted Lottery Does your school plan to use a weighted lottery?
The State Board of Education may approve an applicant’s request to utilize a special weighted, or otherwise limited, lottery in certain circumstances. If the charter applicant wishes to deviate in any way from the open lottery normally utilized by charter schools, the following requirements must be met:
1. In no event may a lottery process illegally discriminate against a student on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, gender, or disability.
2. A lottery process may not be based upon geographic boundaries, such as zip code or current public school attendance zones, unless the charter school is operated by a municipality OR the charter school was converted from a traditional public school. Municipal charter schools may give enrollment priority to domiciliaries of the municipality in which the school is located (G.S. 115C-218.45(f)(7)), and charter schools that were converted from traditional public schools shall give admission preference to students who reside within the former attendance area of the school (G.S. 115C-218.45(c)).

3. A lottery process that deviates from the standard lottery must be based upon the school's unique mission and must be based upon educationally, psychometrically, and legally sound practices, protocol, and research.

Q116. Explanation (optional):

11.1. Transportation Plan

Q117. Describe in detail the transportation plan that will ensure that no child is denied access to the school due to lack of transportation. Include budgetary assumptions and the impact of transportation on the overall budget. The details of this plan should align with the mission, identified need for the charter school, targeted student population, and the budget proposal.

If you plan to provide transportation, include the following:

a. Describe the plan for oversight of transportation options (e.g., whether the school will provide its own transportation, contract out for transportation, attempt to contract with a district, or a combination thereof) and who on the staff will provide this daily oversight.
b. Describe how the school will transport students with special transportation needs and how that will impact your budget.
c. Describe how the school will ensure compliance with state and federal laws and regulations related to transportation services.

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake will make provisions for students enrolled at the school to receive transportation services initially by using a vendor to contract the services. The school's planning team and the governing board's transportation plan prevents transportation from being a barrier for any student who resides in Wake and wants to attend the school. A reasonable number of parents from surrounding areas will need to demonstrate a interest in their students attending Heritage Collegiate in order for the planning team and the governing board to address the issue of transportation for children outside of the county.

For a short term plan, the first option initially to provide student transportation is by contracting privately (using the board-approved procurement process) for a independent bus/van transportation services and (2) a second option is to work with parents/guardians for a plan for carpooling to get students who live in the same communities to get students to and from school, a third option is to explore an option that uses private bus passes for middle grade scholars. If it becomes necessary for Heritage Collegiate to contract for private bus transportation services, the planning team and governing board will implement a contracted transportation plan in which it will have access to private bus transportation to schedule no more than 5-6 different bus routes from different locations in Wake County. The school officials and the
The governing board will comply with the state laws and regulations regarding operating a public school by the state of North Carolina and Wake County regardless of the service provider. As a long-term option once the student population has stabilized enough to establish bus routes, HCLA-Wake will operate its own school bus transportation system and assign a part-time transportation coordinator to oversee the project. At that point, HCLA-Wake is expected to operate 8 school buses and two activity buses for excursions and field trips. No child will be denied access to the school due to a lack of transportation as HCLA-Wake will make provisions to ensure every student who wishes to enroll will have access to transportation.

Special contracted transportation services to and from the school will be provided, where applicable, for students with disabilities. Transportation is a major line item in the expenditure section of the budget as the costs may fluctuate depending upon factors such as fuel costs, enrollment from the various extended communities, and the number of parents willing to carpool to transport scholars to and from school.

In addition, since August 2018, GoTriangle public transit launched the Youth GoPass program which allows youth ages 13 to 18 to ride the GoTriangle, GoRaleigh, GoCary, and GoDurham buses at no cost. Student must submit a completed application with proof of age to obtain the pass. HCLA-Wake will work with applicable scholars who are age 13 or older in securing such passes in the event parents seek this option for transportation.

11.2. School Lunch Plan

Q118. Describe in detail the school lunch plan that will ensure that no child is lacking a daily meal. The details of this plan should align with the targeted student population and school budget proposal. If the school intends to participate in the National School Lunch Program, include the following components in the response:

a. How the school will comply with applicable local, state, and federal guidelines and regulations;

b. Any plans to meet the needs of low-income students;

c. Include how the school intends to collect free- and reduced-price lunch information from qualified families. If a school intends to participate in the Community Eligibility Provision, describe the methodology the school will use to determine eligibility.

(a) The Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake governing board will participate in the National School Lunch Program for breakfast and for lunch. Because of the targeted student population, it is expected that many of the students may be eligible for free/reduced meals. In preparation for such participation, staff will be designated during the summer prior to the opening of school to be trained by the staff of the NCDPI Child Nutrition Office staff on the proper procedures to implement the program.

The school meal program will follow local, state, and federal guidelines and regulations for operating a school lunch program on the site. State Child Nutrition staff will be expected to train the designated HCLA-Wake staff on the process required to adhere to state and federal guidelines and regulations along with the appropriate certifications. It will be the responsibility of the school principal or the designated child nutrition staff member to contact the Wake County Health Department requesting an inspection evaluation from the health inspector and to assign a health grade and number for the school meal operation. This will be done prior to the serving of the first meal. In addition, the staff nutrition coordinator will be trained by NCDPI staff on the appropriate procedure for collecting the student meal participation information in order to file for federal reimbursements by the 10th of each month. It is expected that the school will collect the data (number and eligibility) using an electronic device and paper until such time as teachers are comfortable reporting the participation data online using an electronic device and software such as PrimeroEdge.

(b) All students, including low income students, will have the opportunity to participate in the school's child nutrition program and eligibility will be determined on whether the meals will be free, reduced, or full priced based on the application completed by their parents/guardian at the time of their enrollment and at the beginning of the academic year each year thereafter. The designated CN staff person will get the applications from the NCDPI Child Nutrition Department.

(c) Because the school will be located in Wake County it is doubtful that the school as a whole will be eligible for participation in the Community Eligibility Program (CEP); however, the governing board will apply for the program through the NCDPI Office of Child Nutrition at the time the school board chair signs the NCDPI Child Nutrition Program Agreement.

Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake expects the governing board to contract with a reputable nationally known food vendor to make meals (breakfasts and lunches) and necessary equipment through leases (kitchen food preparation equipment, freezers, refrigerators, and milk coolers) available for the school's child nutrition operation. It is expected that the governing board will choose for students to eat in the classrooms according to the school schedule. Water and hand sanitizer will be easily accessible within or near each classroom.
The school's leadership will use a modified version of NCDPI Child Nutrition Program's recommended board-approved procurement process and form. The school staff will evaluate proposals and make a recommendation to the school's leadership team. The governing board will approve the contract with the vendor while the school CN staff will be responsible for monitoring and implementing the school's child nutrition program.

The school's leadership will recommend and governing board will approve an external auditor each year to review applications to ensure that students and family eligibility statuses are coded appropriately.

11.3. Civil Liability and Insurance

Q123. Describe what the board anticipates will be the challenges of starting a new school and how it expects to address these challenges. Submit a Start-up (Year 0) Budget as Appendix O, if applicable.

The challenge of starting a new school in Wake County is acquiring the respect in the community to level of providing competition with a school district with the reputation of Wake County Schools. However, the planning team for Heritage Collegiate-Wake is up to the task as several members have lived in the community of Northeast Wake County for many years. We believe that employing the marketing strategies we are proposing, that our recruitment efforts will be effective. In addition, the performance of School branding (gadgets with HCLA-Wake written on them) as a market strategy will also assist with this effort.

11.5. Facility

Q124. What is your plan to obtain a building? Identify specific steps the board will take to acquire a facility and obtain the Educational Certificate of Occupancy. Present a timeline with reasonable assumptions for facility selection, requisition, state fire marshal and health inspections, and occupation.

Note that the SBE may approve a charter school prior to the school's obtaining a facility; however, students may not attend school and no funds will be allocated until the school has obtained a valid Certificate of Occupancy for Educational use to the Office of Charter Schools.

HCLA-Wake's planning team including the founding board has identified a plan to obtain a building once the application is approved. Northeast Wake County has several unoccupied buildings available that the planning team believe are in acceptable locations, safe, and appear to be appropriate for use as a school facility for 900 students. As soon as the charter application is approved, the plan is to identify the most suitable facility from all of the ones in Northeast Raleigh that have been identified. It is expected that the governing board will initially lease a facility-one that is large enough to accommodate the expected total 900 student population. It is expected that the facility will be renovated and outfitted to be made suitable for a school and be ready with a Certificate of Occupancy and students by Summer 2022.

Q125. Describe the school's facility needs based on the educational program and projected enrollment, including: number of classrooms, square footage per classroom, classroom types, common areas, overall square footage, and amenities. Discuss both short-term and long-term facility plans. Demonstrate that the estimate included in your budget is reasonable.

The school will need a facility with approximately 60,000 square feet with adequate space for parking and school bus movement whether provided by the school or by a transportation vendor. We will need an auditorium, 39 classrooms approximately 5 offices, cafeteria food preparation area plus possible student eating area. The planning team projects facility needs for approximately 900 students, approximately 74 staff members, for the first five years, it is expected that the means of acquisition will be through leasing with the owner outfitting to meet the school's needs. A real expectation is that for the first five years, the school will be housed in the same facility.
Q126. Describe school facility needs, including: science labs, art room, computer labs, library/media center, performance/dance room, gymnasium and athletic facilities, auditorium, main office and satellite offices, work room/copy room, supplies/storage, teacher work rooms, and other spaces.

HCLA-Wake will have the facility need for a small gym possibly, science lab, art room/dance room, computer labs, media center, main office, copy room, supplies and storage room as well as a teacher work room and nurse’s station.

Q127. What is the breakdown of cost per square foot for the proposed facility? Outline how this cost is comparable to the commercial and educational spaces for the proposed school location.

For the buildings that we have sought so far, the average cost is $3.50 per square foot. We have talked to local realtors who indicated that this is the average for the area which is located in the upper Northeast Wake County or North Raleigh.

Q128. Facility Contingency Plan: Describe the method of finding a facility if the one the board has identified will not be ready by the time the public charter school will be opening. Include information regarding the immediate spatial needs of the school and identify any programs that will not be immediately offered because a permanent facility has yet to open.

As stated previously, the Northeast Wake County Community has several (at least 10 identified) unoccupied buildings that appear to be suitable for a 60,000 sf minimum to house 900 students and 74 staff members. Many have been vacant for a long time after being abandoned mostly by furniture stores, warehouses, and storage facility. We feel that we will have no problem identifying a facility contingency plan should the need arise during the planning year.

Q129. Describe the board’s capacity and experience in facilities acquisition and management, including managing build-out and/or renovations, as applicable.

Several members of the board have degrees in school administration and are quite familiar with school facility needs which is a part of the training for school leaders at most schools.

Q131. Explanation (optional):
The budget is original and is based on the projected Revenue from State, Federal and local funds. Although the board of directors and the planning team plan to pursue grants and additional sources of revenue during the planning year, 2021-2022, no additional funding is in place at this time.

12.2. Budget Narrative

Q134. How was the student enrollment number projected?
The student enrollment number was projected based on a perceived need as expressed by parents and members of the community. In addition, it is felt by the school planning team that the school should begin small with a focus on primary education with a manageable number of students and staff before gradually and eventually expanding to a larger group that can be sustained. The planning team projected to have 25 students per classroom with a total of three base teachers per grade and a total of 100 students per grade. The school will begin in 2022 with grades K-6 with a total of 700 students which will increase annually by one grade and 100 students until it reaches grade 8 and capacity in the third year at 900 students.

The HCLA-Wake planning team believes that beginning with K-6, staff will allow school leaders to work with both groups while gaining experience, building the school culture, setting high expectations for the school, and ensuring that the school expenditures do not exceed the school's projected revenue budget. Because of the fact that the location is Wake County where expenditure are higher than many location in North Carolina, it is necessary to project an enrollment that will support the mission and curricular goals.

Q135. Provide an explanation as to why you believe there is a demand for the school that will meet this enrollment projection

HCLA-Wake will be located in Northeastern Wake County where students who are economically disadvantaged are not permitted to attend a magnet school unless they live in the designated community and can attend as a base school student. Transfer outside of the community are very limited and may require going before the county board of education in order to get an appeal. This is one of the issues in Northeastern Wake County that has caused many parents to become frustrated especially those who believe in community schools and access to school choice. Please note the uploaded list of Wake County Schools located in the Upper Northeastern and Eastern section of Wake County that show their school performance grade as an F or a D according to what is reported in the NC School Report Cards for the 2018-19 academic year. This is concerning to the parents who live and send their children to school in these communities. They want more educational options available to them for their children.

Parents and community members in the Northeastern and Eastern sections of Wake County have suggested that a school that is small, personable, focused, and caring while at the same time providing engaging, rigorous, and high quality instruction will motivate students from these communities to become active participants in the learning process.

Evidence:
Q136. Provide the break-even point of student enrollment
The break-even point of student enrollments are:

2022-2023 560 of expected 700 students
2023-2024 640 of expected 800 students
2024-2025 720 of expected 900 students
2025-2026 720 of expected 900 students
2026-2027 720 of expected 900 students

Q137. Discuss the school's contingency plan to meet financial needs if anticipated revenues are not received or are lower than estimated HCLA-Wake's contingency plan to meet the financial needs of the school is to conduct numerous fundraising events including applying for grants and to seek foundations and private donors to help the school to remain solvent until it is able to reach its projected student enrollment. After hearing from existing charter schools in NC to expect low enrollments the first two years, the planning team and governing board members are anticipating that this will be one of their challenges, especially for the first two years. In addition, the leadership will re-evaluate its staffing projections to ensure that it is consistent with the needs of the school based on its actual registration and enrollment. Only about 80 percent of teachers will be early on while the remaining teachers will be hired closer to the actual opening of school.

Whenever the projected school's student's enrollment Every aspect of the school's operation will be evaluated in order to determine where necessary cuts to the programs can be made with the least amount of impact. Staying in the black will be a consistent goal of the school's leadership.

Q138. Does the budget rely on sources of funds other than state, county, and federal (e.g., loans, donations, etc.)? If so, please provide the source and amount. Also, describe any committed contributions and in-kind donations of goods or services to be received by the charter school that will assist in evaluating the financial viability of the school. Clearly indicate between those grants or in-kind donations which have already been firmly committed and those the board is planning to pursue. Be sure that the appropriate assurances documentation is provided in the appendices.

At this point in the school's application process, the school's budget is relying solely on local, state and federal funds. However, once the application is approved the planning team will seek to apply for applicable grants and other donations of goods and services to help ensure the financial viability of the school. No grants or donations have been promised to the school at this time.

Q139. Provide the student to teacher ratio that the budget is built on

The planned student to teacher ratio for Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake is 25:1 or one teacher per 25 students.

Q140. Describe the board's individual and collective qualifications and capacity for implementing the financial plan successfully

The founding board of HCLA-Wake's has the individual and collective qualifications and capacity for implementing the school's financial plan successfully. At least four of the six board members have previously been the leader of a school or a business or an organisation or both in which they had to develop and implement a successful financial plan.

Q141. Describe how one or more high needs students with disabilities might affect the budget and your plan to meet student needs that might be more than anticipated

One or more high needs students with disabilities might affect the budget by causing the school to expend more resources than originally planned but the school is committed to providing any needed services to all of its students regardless of their need. In a case such as this school, it will become the responsibility of the school leader and special education teacher to seek additional resources through grants and donations and by consulting with regional EC representative to see what other resources may be available to ensure that the child or children's needs are met. At no time will be dismiss a scholar or scholars because their need for services has become too expensive. The school will find a way to meet the scholars' needs.

Q142. If there is a plan to outsource any or all financial management areas such as payroll, benefits, audits, fundraising, accounting, etc., provide a statement on how the vendors will be selected and how the board will oversee their activities to ensure fidelity and compliance.

According to the planning team's projection, there will be a need to outsource some of the school's financial management areas such as payroll, audits, and accounting. The vendors will be selected from exploring professionals in the field and gathering a list of recommended vendors from which a recommended vendor will be selected based on a board-approved vetting process or by using the board-approved procurement process. The board will oversee the activities of the financial vendors by receiving monthly or quarter reports from them and/or the school leader in order to ensure the school's financial fidelity and compliance.
Q143. Does the school intend to contract for services such as student accounting and financial services, exceptional children instructional support, custodial etc. Describe the criteria and procedures for the selection of contractors and large purchases.
In each of these cases the process above will be used to select vendors, either through a strenuous vetting process or through the board-approved procurement process. A formal process will be used to select vendors regardless of the services required. To select for large purchases, a board-approved procurement process will be used to select the vendor to be recommended to the board. The board has to approve the contract for each large-scale vendor before they begin providing the services to the school.

Q144. Explain how the budget aligns with the school's mission, curricular offerings, transportation plans, and facility needs

The school's projected budget aligns with the school mission, curricular offerings, transportation plans and facility needs as all of these services were taken into consideration as the budget was being developed.

Q145. What percentage of expenditures will be the school's goal for a general fund balance? Describe how the school will develop the fund balance.

At least 5 percent of the expenditures will be the school's goal for a general fund balance. The school will set aside these funds for a rainy day by using local funds since they have the flexibility of carryover funds across fiscal years.

Q146. Provide a description of proposed financing structure. Include financing of facilities, other asset financing and leases

The proposed financing structure of HCLA-Wake will be to use allocated state funds, then federal funds as the fiscal year end later than the one for state funds, then local and grant funds since they tend to have the greatest flexibility for carryover. In addition, should the school decide to purchase a large facility, it is be amenable to taking out fixed rate long-term loans but more so after the school has been operating for five years.

Q147. Will the school have assets from other sources (e.g. building, furniture, chairs, computers, etc.)? If yes, please provide a list. Note which are secured and which are anticipated, and include evidence of commitment for any assets on which the school's core operation depends.

HCLA-Wake will not begin operations with any assets from any sources that are known at this time; therefore no list of its assets can be provided. With a resourceful and dedicated planning team and governing board, it is expected that some assets will be acquired prior to the opening of school but it is not known what they will be at this time. It is planned that team members and the founding governing board members will write grants, seek donations from businesses especially large businesses like universities, SAS Institute, and others that may be willing to make donations of used furniture, computers. or contributions to the school. In addition, team members will spend a lot of time at the State Surplus Warehouse almost weekly seeking to purchase economical furniture, chairs, desks and other basic items. While there are no assets at this time, it is expected that HCLA-Wake will have what will be needed to operate school when it opens in August 2022.
Q148. How will the school ensure adequate internal controls, including segregation of duties, safeguarding of assets, accurate and adequate recording keeping?

The school will ensure adequate internal controls by hiring a financial bookkeeper on site who will work under the supervision of the school's director, the financial contractor and that all school checks are to be signed by two parties, the school leader and a designated Board member. Financial records will be kept on-site and filed electronically off-site. An inventory of school assets will be kept on-site with electronic copies being kept off-site. A expectation of the school is that accurate and adequate record keeping will always be one of the school's priorities.

Q149. Provide any known or possible related party transactions (relationship, description of transaction and estimated dollars involved)

Not Applicable as no financial transactions have taken place at the time of the application.

Q150. Provide the name of the firm approved by the NC Local Government Commission (LGC) that will conduct the audit. Include the complete mailing address, telephone number and fax number. If a firm has yet to be identified, please list the firms the board has investigated

The name of the firm that has verbally agreed to conduct the financial audit of Heritage Collegiate Leadership Academy-Wake Charter School is Petway, Mills, and Pearson (Phyllis Pearson), Post Office Box 1036, 1014 North Arendell Avenue, Zebulon, North Carolina 27567, telephone: (919) 269-7405, Fax (919) 269-8728.

* Q157. Outline the board's procedures for hiring and dismissing school personnel, including conducting criminal background checks.

The founding board of directors will make the final decision in the hiring and termination of all Heritage Collegiate's employees. The hiring of all employees and the termination of all employees is required to be presented to the governing board of directors at a formal meeting in which there is a quorum. It is expected that the leading school official will present the information to the Board. The issues will be discussed and the decision made in a closed session of the board meeting with the minutes reflecting the decision in the closed session minutes.

School employees and school volunteers must submit to a criminal background check that is similar to the background checks of Wake County Schools. The board of directors will require the criminal background checks on all employees and volunteers to protect the financial integrity of the school and to protect the health and safety of students and employees. Refusal by any employee to submit to a criminal background check is grounds for the school to recommend to the board of directors that the employee be terminated or that an applicant be denied employment. The school will assume responsibility for the costs for conducting criminal history checks on its prospective employees. All criminal history checks are to be confirmed by a certified copy of the conviction or other means permitted by the State Board of Education.

8.3 Amendment of Bylaws. Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or herein, these Bylaws may be amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then holding office at any annual or special meeting of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that notice of the proposed action shall have been included in the notice of the meeting or shall have been waived as provided in these Bylaws.

8.4 Validity of Signatures. In case any person whose signature shall appear on any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness of the Corporation shall cease to be an officer or hold an office different from that held at the time of signature before the delivery of such instrument, such signature shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he or she had remained in such office until such delivery.
Article IX
Conflict of Interest

Conflict of Interest. A Director shall inform the Board of Directors of any direct or indirect conflict of interest which the Director has with regard to any transaction contemplated by the Board of Directors (a “Conflict of Interest”). A Conflict of Interest shall exist in Board actions including, but not be limited to, actions concerning a transaction:

(i) in which the Director has a material financial interest, or

(ii) in which the Director is presently serving as a director, trustee, officer or general partner of another party.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 55A-8-31 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, the Director may participate in the discussion but may not vote on the transaction and when a Director does not vote because of a Conflict of Interest, the act of the majority of the Directors voting shall be the act of the Board of Directors if a quorum is present at the meeting.

Section 1. Purpose of Conflict of Interest Policy

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect this tax-exempt corporation’s interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the corporation or any “disqualified person” as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations and which might result in a possible “excess benefit transaction” as defined in Section 4958(c)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958 of the IRS Regulations. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definitions

a. Interested Person. Any director, principal officer, member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, or any other person who is a “disqualified person” as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulation, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

b. Financial Interest. A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

   1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement,
2. A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with any entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or

3. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 3, paragraph B, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3. Conflict of Interest Avoidance Procedures

a. Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

b. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

c. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation’s best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

d. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member’s response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose and actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Section 4. Records of Board and Board Committee Proceedings

The minutes of meeting of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing boards or committee’s decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangements, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Section 5. Compensation Approval Policies

A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member’s compensation.

A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member’s compensation.

No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

When approving compensation for directors, officers and employees, contractors, and any other compensation contract or arrangement, in addition to complying with the conflict of interest requirements and policies contained in the preceding and following sections of this article as well as the preceding paragraphs of this section of this article, the board or a duly constituted compensation committee of the board shall also comply with the following additional requirements and procedures:

a. The terms of compensation shall be approved by the board or compensation committee prior to the first payment of compensation.

b. All members of the board or compensation committee who approve compensation arrangements must not have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement as specified in IRS Regulation Section 53.4958-6(c)(iii), which generally requires that each board member or committee member approving a compensation arrangement between this organization and a “disqualified person” (as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations):

1. is not the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement, or a family member of such person;
2. is not in an employment relationship subject to the direction or control of the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement
3. does not receive compensation or other payments subject to approval by the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement
4. has no material financial interest affected by the compensation arrangement; and
5. does not approve a transaction providing economic benefits to the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement, who in turn has approved or will approve a transaction providing benefits to the board or committee member.

c. The board or compensation committee shall obtain and rely upon appropriate data as to comparability prior to approving the terms of compensation. Appropriate data may include the following:

1. Compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations, both taxable and tax-exempt, for functionally comparable positions. “Similarly situated” organizations are those of a similar size, purpose, and with similar resources.
2. The availability of similar services in the geographic area of this organization
3. Current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms
4. Actual written offers from similar institutions competing for the services of the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement
As allowed by IRS Regulation 4958-6, if this organization has average annual gross receipts (including contributions) for its three prior tax years of less than $1 million, the board or compensation committee will have obtained and relied upon appropriate data as to comparability if it obtains and relies upon data on compensation paid by three comparable organizations in the same or similar communities for similar services.

d. The terms of compensation and the basis for approving them shall be recorded in written minutes of the meeting of the board or compensation committee that approved the compensation. Such documentation shall include:

1. The terms of the compensation arrangement and the date it was approved
2. The members of the board or compensation committee who were present during debate on the transaction, those who voted on it, and the votes cast by each board or committee member
3. The comparability data obtained and relied upon and how the data was obtained
4. If the board or compensation committee determines that reasonable compensation for a specific position in this organization or for providing services under any other compensation arrangement with this organization is higher or lower than the range of comparability data obtained, the board or committee shall record in the minutes of the meeting the basis for its determination.
5. If the board or committee makes adjustments to comparability data due to geographic area or other specific conditions, these adjustments and the reasons for them shall be recorded in the minutes of the board or committee meeting.
6. Any actions taken with respect to determining if a board or committee member had a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement, and if so, actions taken to make sure the member with the conflict of interest did not affect or participate in the approval of the transaction (for example, a notation in the records that after a finding of conflict of interest by a member, the member with the conflict of interest was asked to, and did, leave the meeting prior to a discussion of the compensation arrangement and a taking of the votes to approve the arrangement).
7. The minutes of board or committee meetings at which compensation arrangements are approved must be prepared before the later of the date of the next board or committee meeting or 60 days after the final actions of the board or committee are taken with respect to the approval of the compensation arrangements. The minutes must be reviewed and approved by the board and committee as reasonable, accurate, and complete within a reasonable period thereafter, normally prior to or at the next board or committee meeting following final action on the arrangement by the board or committee.
Section 6. Annual Statements

Each director, principal officer, and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

a. Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,

b. Has read and understands the policy,

c. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and

d. Understands that corporation is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Section 7. Periodic Reviews

To ensure the corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

a. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm’s-length bargaining.

b. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the corporation’s written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or in an excess benefit transaction.

Section 8. Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Section 7, the corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

27 years of experience as an Educator. My focus has been on ensuring that all students are provided the skills needed to be successful and employ strategies that work for them as individuals. Equity is not about doing the same thing for every student but it is more about being diverse, and providing inclusion within our educational systems. We must be strategic and mindful of practices that hinder our progress and focus on actions that support equitable practices.
