Lifetime License
2.10 Lifetime License

Provide clarity to the field around the renewal requirements prior to converting a Continuing Professional License (CPL) to a Lifetime License

An individual, who plans to convert his/her continuing professional license (CPL) to a lifetime license, will not be required to complete continuing education credits (CEUs) for the renewal period immediately preceding the conversion to a lifetime license. If the individual fails to meet the requirements to hold a lifetime license, the individual's license shall expire and the required CEUs must be completed in advance of reinstating the license.

Potential Impact of Pathways Model

• Presumably, the new licensure structure in the Pathways Model would eliminate the need for all existing licensure categories.

• Teachers would enter the profession at whatever level their demonstrated skill indicated.

• Teachers would progress through the new license structure as they met the competencies for the next licensure level.

• Teachers would have multiple avenues for demonstrating their competencies; currently there is only one – standardized testing.

LICN-001

➢ Federal Provision: H.R. 7939 (Veterans Auto and Education Improvement Act of 2022)
Federal Provision

Federal Provision Pursuant to H.R. 7939 – Veterans Auto and Education Improvement Act of 2022, service members or the spouse of a service member who are under military orders to relocate to North Carolina and are in possession of a current educator’s license from another jurisdiction, shall be considered to hold a valid NC educator’s license for the duration of such military orders. The following conditions shall apply to this provision:

- the applicant provides a copy of the military orders and documentation of marital status (if applicable) to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction;
- the applicant’s license from another jurisdiction (and all other jurisdictions in which the application holds a current license) is current and in good standing;
- the license has been actively used (for employment as an educator) during the two years immediately preceding the relocation;
- the license from the other jurisdiction is appropriate for the position in which the service member or spouse of the service member will be employed.
North Carolina Educator Licensure

The military-connected applicant is not issued a NC educator’s license under this provision, but the valid out-of-state license allows the educator to be paid on the teacher salary schedule. The provision will remain in effect until the military orders expire or June 30th of that same year, whichever is later.

If a military-connected applicant wishes to obtain a North Carolina educator’s license after the terms of this provision expire, the applicant must meet all State Board of Education licensure requirements in effect at the time of application.
Summary

• Foundations of Reading Test 090 would retire on July 31, 2023. Foundations of Reading Test 190, updated reading subtest, is currently an option.

• Remove PLT from secondary licensure areas to align with edTPA and PPAT being the assessments to fulfill the pedagogy test requirement

• Update to Special Education Tests
  • 5545 => 5547
  • 5543 & 5354 => 5355 (The 5355: Special Education Foundational Knowledge test was designed to replace the test for core knowledge and applications. The National Advisory Committee for the tests—a panel of Special Education teachers and teacher educators--after reviewing the standards and the redesigned test’s composition, concluded that the test’s content was also aligned with expected knowledge for candidates seeking mild/moderate licenses.)
