Please complete the following for your PSU's response to days missed due inclement weather or a power failure in December through February.

Note: Instructional days deemed completed are missed instructional days due to inclement weather or power failure from December to February that will NOT be made up, and were not changed to teacher work days or remote instruction. PSUs are held harmless for days deemed completed, as they are still counted towards their instructional time. Staff, including School Nutrition employees and contractors, are required to be paid as if they had worked (SL2025-2 Section 5.8.(b) and (c)).

Note: Make up days are any instructional days that were not previously scheduled as instructional days, but were changed to instructional days to make up for time lost due to inclement weather in December to February. They do not include remote instructional days.
