Dear Friends:

As you gather today in observance of the Holocaust, I bring you greetings from the people of North Carolina. I am sorry that a prior commitment prevents me from being with you on this solemn occasion.

The Holocaust represents a dark and brutal time in our history. The six million souls who suffered and died must never be forgotten. Their faith and courage, and that of the survivors and their families, stand as a symbol to all of us that we can triumph over evil. It is imperative that we bear witness to the atrocities they endured and stand together to say "Never Again."

To all of you here today and all across our great state, I wish you God's blessings as we remember the Holocaust.

With warm personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

DAYS OF REMEMBRANCE. In 1979, the U.S. Congress established Days of Remembrance as the nation's annual commemoration of the Holocaust. Holocaust Remembrance Day—Yom Hashoah—corresponds to the 27th day of Nisan on the Hebrew calendar and the day on which the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising began in 1943. In 2019 Holocaust Remembrance Day is May 2. The eight-day period of Days of Remembrance runs from the Sunday before Yom Hashoah through the following Sunday. Each year the Governor of North Carolina issues a State Proclamation affirming these days as a time for remembrance and reflection. The 2019 Proclamation appears on the last page of this program.

In 2005 the United Nations General Assembly designated January 27 as International Holocaust Remembrance Day—the day in 1945 that Auschwitz was liberated by the Soviet army. Since 2005, the U.N. and its member states have held commemoration ceremonies on this day to honor the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazism.

THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL ON THE HOLOCAUST is a state agency in the N. C. Department of Public Instruction, established in 1981 by Governor James B. Hunt, Jr. It is composed of twenty-four members, of whom six are Holocaust survivors or first-generation lineal descendants of survivors. All members are volunteers appointed by the Governor, the Speaker of the House, or the President pro tempore of the Senate; six are appointed at large. Through its education and commemoration programs, the Council strives to help prevent atrocities similar to the systematic program of mass murder by the Nazis of six million Jews and other targeted groups, including Roma (Gypsies), homosexuals, handicapped persons, and religious and political dissidents, from 1933 to 1945.

If you would like to volunteer with the commemoration committee or contribute to the North Carolina Holocaust Foundation, which supports the Council's teacher workshops and other programs across the state, please contact Council Chairman Michael Abramson: mabramson919@gmail.com. Also contact Mr. Abramson if you would like to view the Foundation's Form 990.

THE COUNCIL ANNOUNCES the new edition of its teacher's guide, The Holocaust: A North Carolina Teacher's Resource, with historical overviews, lessons, and 23 narratives from 21 survivors who became North Carolina residents. They are:

"The Star-Spangled Banner" __PLEASE STAND__
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814.

Jenna Isley

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

American flag handmade by prisoners in the Mauthausen concentration camp and presented upon liberation to Col. Richard R. Seibel, U.S. Army, Eleventh Armored Division, Combat Command "B." This was the first flag to fly over Mauthausen after its liberation. Pieced together from salvaged cloth, the flag contains 56 stars and 13 stripes.

"Song of the Partisans"

Lyrics by Hirsh Glik. Music by Daniel & Dmitri Pokrass.

Miriam Barker, Bernard Most, Arlene Pike
Xavier Richert, Phil Rosol

A Lithuanian poet, Hirsh Glik worked with the underground while in the Vilna ghetto. In July 1944 he escaped from a concentration camp and disappeared; it is presumed that he was captured and executed by the Nazis. His "Song of the Partisans" ("Zog nit keyn mol"—"Never Say") became the anthem of Jewish partisans in eastern Europe and a song of hope and courage in the camps.

Zog nit keyn mol az du geyst dem letstn veg,
Khotsh himlen blayene farshteln bloye teg.
Kumen vet nokh undzer oysgebenkte sho—
Es vet a poyk ton undzer trot mir zaynen do.

Never say this is the final road for you,
Though leaden skies may cover over days of blue.
As the hour we longed for is so near,
Our step beats out the message—we are here!

Fun grinem palmenland biz land fun vaysn shney,
Mir kumen on mit undzer pays, mit undzer vey,
Un vu gefaln s'iz a shprits fun undzer blut,
Shprotsn vet dart undzer gvure, undzer mut.

From lands so green with palms to lands all white with snow
We shall be coming with our anguish and our woe,
And where a spurt of blood fell on the earth,
There our courage and our spirit have rebirth.

Es vet di morgnzun bagildn undz dem haynt,
Un der nekhtn vet farshvindn mitn faynd,
Nor oyb farzamen vet di zun in dem kayor,
Vi a parol zol geyn dos lid fun dor tsu dor.

The early morning sun will brighten our day,
And yesterday with our foe will fade away.
And if the sun delays and in the east remains,
This song as password generations must maintain.

Dos lid geshribn iz mit blut un nit mit blay,
S'iz nit kin lidl fun a foygl af der fray,
Dos hot a folk tsvishn falndike vent
Dos lid gezungen mit naganes in di hent!

Zog nit keyn mol az du geyst dem letstn veg,
Khotsh himlen blayene farshteln bloye teg.
Kumen vet nokh undzer oysgebenkte sho—
Es vet a poyk ton undzer trot mir zaynen do!

This song was written with our blood and not with lead,
It's not a little tune that birds sing overhead,
This song a people sang amid collapsing walls,
With grenades in hands they heeded to the call!

So never say this is the final road for you,
Though leaden skies may cover over days of blue.
As the hour we longed for is so near,
Our step beats out the message—we are here!

SILENT MEDITATION

“Ani Ma’amin” (“I Believe”)

Miriam Barker, Bernard Most, Arlene Pike
Xavier Richert, Phil Rosol

Written by an unknown composer, “Ani Ma’amin” is based on the thirteen articles of faith by the rabbi and Torah scholar Maimonides (1135-1204 C.E.). Many Jews sang “Ani Ma’amin” as they faced imminent death in the gas chambers.

I believe. I believe, I believe, with perfect faith, in the coming of the Messiah, I believe.
And even though he tarry, I will wait each day for his coming. I believe.

Ani ma’amin, ani ma’amin, ani ma’amin be’emuna shlema
Beviat hamashiach, beviat hamashiach
Ani ma’amin veaf al pi sheyitmameya, im kol ze ani ma’amin

Let the Glory of God be extolled, let the great Name be hallowed, in the world whose creation God willed. May God’s reign soon prevail, in our own day, our own lives, and the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen. Let God’s great name be blessed forever and ever.

Let the name of the Blessed Holy One be glorified, exalted, and honored, though God is beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter, and let us say: Amen.

For us and all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, and on all Israel, and on all the world, and let us say: Amen.

MARK WERNER

Fighting Back: A Memoir of Jewish Resistance in World War II (1992), by Harold Werner, edited by Mark Werner.

Mark Werner's father, Harold Werner, was a leader in a large Jewish partisan unit that aggressively conducted military missions against the German army in occupied Poland. In addition to their military exploits, this unit rescued Jews and provided a safe haven for them deep in the Polish forest. Few accounts of Jewish survival during the Holocaust describe such a rare combination of victorious military activities and humanitarian efforts in successful large-scale Jewish resistance against the Nazis.
