Finding Detail: The School Food Authority (SFA) has established cash management procedures, but these need further detail to align with best practices for safeguarding federal funds. Currently, the SFA does not document the reconciliation of petty cash. It is essential to reconcile all cash including petty cash and document it with the signatures of two staff members to verify the count. Protecting federal funds is crucial for the financial integrity of the School Nutrition program, and ensuring the safety of the School Nutrition staff is of utmost importance.
