English as a Second Language, Middle Grades/Secondary English Language Arts, Middle Grades/Secondary Mathematics, Middle Grades/Secondary Science, Middle Grades/Secondary Social Studies, and Reading. The Department of Library and Information Studies also offers Instructional Technology (on moratorium) and a post-baccalaureate certificate program in Special Endorsement in Computer Education.

The SOE Department of Specialized Education Services (SES) offers a M.Ed. for individuals who hold initial licensure in Special Education: General Curriculum. SES M.Ed. candidates who hold a teaching license in another area must take at least six semester hours of pre-requisites. Candidates who do not hold a teaching license must complete a post-baccalaureate licensure program prior to enrolling in the M.Ed. program.

The College of Arts and Sciences Department of Language, Literature and Cultural Studies offers an MAT and a M.Ed. in French and Spanish. The CVPA Department of Dance and Department of Music Education offers an M.A. and M.M. respectively, all leading to advanced competencies licensure. The School of Education Department of Specialized Education Services and the Health and Human Sciences Department of Human Development and Family Studies jointly offer a M.Ed. in Birth-Kindergarten: Interdisciplinary Studies in Education and Development.

The M.A. in Dance Education; the M.Ed. in Birth-Kindergarten, Elementary Mathematics, Latin and Reading; and the MLIS School Media are approved as online programs. The post-baccalaureate certificate in Birth-Kindergarten and Computer Education, the post-baccalaureate licensure program in Special Education, and the post-masters certificate in School Counseling, are also offered online. Several programs are offered at off campus locations. In 2016-17 these included M.Ed. programs in Elementary Mathematics and Middle Grades/Secondary Mathematics.

All of the master's programs require a culminating initial or advanced competencies portfolio that demonstrates the candidates' meeting North Carolina graduate teaching standards.

Special Features of Master's Program

Master's coursework and clinical practice are aligned with state and national standards, as well as the UNCG Conceptual Framework: “The mission of professional education at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro is to ensure ‘Access to Opportunities through Teaching, Learning and Caring.’ This requires excellence in all our programs through alignment to state and national standards; explicit connections between research, theory and practice; candidates’ acquisition of the knowledge, skills and dispositions of their disciplines; detailed evaluation of our candidates’ continual professional growth; collaboration among stakeholders; ongoing self-study; and an overriding commitment to fostering beliefs and actions that promote education for all. Toward these ends, our unit and programs focus on six areas: leadership, professional knowledge, professional practice, educational environments, data-informed decision making, and professional growth to support the learning of all children in the context of 21st century complexity and dynamic change.” All programs were reviewed and revised by spring 2017, in alignment with new UNCG Teachers Academy Conceptual Framework and with state and national standards. The unit was re-accredited by NCATE in 2015 through the CAEP Accreditation System, for a period of six years, from 2015-21. Programs continue to use data to inform program self-study and improvement.
