

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Review the eligibility requirements listed on page 7 of this application to ensure you are eligible to apply for Governor's School.

INSTRUCTIONS

- SAVE this application on your computer, then open the saved version in a pdf program. Do not try to complete it within a web browser, as your data might not save.
- STUDENT INFORMATION. Complete all fields below. If your school/school system elects to nominate you to the State level, the Office of the North Carolina Governor's School will use that information for future contact. SAVE YOUR FILE!
- PART 1: GENERAL ESSAY. Read the instructions and enter your essay. SAVE YOUR FILE!
- PART 2: DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC TASK. Read the specific instructions for your area of nomination and complete the assigned essay or audition.
- PART 3: PERSONAL READINESS. Shine! Quality of activities and awards is more important than quantity; note your leadership, dedication, etc. Tell why some of these are meaningful to you, and how you are ready for Governor's School. SAVE YOUR FILE!
- PART 4: STATEMENTS OF ASSURANCE.
- SUBMIT this application electronically to the appropriate local school personnel. DO NOT send it directly to the State. Your school will add the official transcript and other components to create your nomination if they decide to advance it for State-level consideration.
- RECOMMENDATIONS (2). Ask two people (at least one of whom must be one of your current or former high school teachers) to each submit an official recommendation. Direct them to the official Recommendation Form on the Governor's School website. They must complete their form electronically and send it directly to the Governor's School contact at your school. (They should not send Recommendation Forms to you or to the state NC Governor's School office.)

PART 1: GENERAL ESSAY

COMPLETE ELECTRONICALLY, NOT HANDWRITTEN

ESSAY INSTRUCTIONS:

- Type or paste your essay into the box below. Do not retype the prompt, but be sure your essay responds to it. Use a standard font (e.g., Arial, Times New Roman, Helvetica, etc.) no larger than 10 point.
- The entire essay (i.e., title, body, etc.) must be no more than 3,500 characters, around 500-550 words. Formal citations or footnotes are not necessary. Credit or mention any authors, works, ideas, etc. that are not your own within the essay itself.
- Do not include pictures, charts or any other graphics.
- Formatting within the essay box is limited. If necessary, edit/format your essay in another program and paste it in the essay box. Essays will be judged on content, not format.

PROMPT: Identify and discuss a contemporary 21st century topic within your area of application that you are interested in exploring. What is the significance of this topic and its current and future impact? Considering multiple perspectives, how would you like to further explore this topic?

When your link has been submitted, please check the box below to verify the statement that you have completed and submitted the audition appropriate for your nomination discipline.

I have completed and submitted the audition for my nomination discipline. I have verified that the link is active and accessible. I have shared that link with my Governor’s School Coordinator.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINES (English, Mathematics, Natural Science, Social Science, Spanish)

Essay Instructions:

- Identify your essay prompt according to your nomination discipline.
- Type or paste your essay into the box below. Do not retype the prompt, but be sure your essay responds to it. Use a standard font (e.g., Arial, Times New Roman, Helvetica, etc.) no larger than 10 point.
- The entire essay (i.e., title, body, etc.) must be no more than 3,500 characters, around 500-550 words. Do not include pictures, charts or any other graphics.
- Formatting within the essay box is limited. If necessary, edit/format your essay in another program and paste it in the essay box. Essays will be judged on content, not format.
- It is recommended that your General Essay and Discipline-Specific Essay explore different topics, ideas, and/or information.

Prompts:

English: Describe a vision of the world as presented in a 20th or 21st century literary work that is fundamentally different from your own. What have you learned from seeing through this lens? How has this impacted your own perception or understanding of the world

Mathematics: Modern mathematics is driven not by a reliance on the concepts of numbers and data, but by the need to ask good questions. With that in mind, what are some questions you hope to have answered by your further study of mathematics? Support your answer with examples that briefly describe how you do math and why you enjoy math.

Spanish: Choose a social issue that exists in both the US and a Spanish-speaking country. Compare how both society’s people, laws, and social movements address the issue. Respond in Spanish.

Natural Science: Discuss a scientific concept or idea from the past 10 years that is still considered experimental. If evidence were to overwhelmingly support this new concept or idea, how might it affect the scientific discipline, and society as a whole?

Social Science: Select a thinker, writer, or influential person whose work you believe does not receive enough attention or study in today’s society. Explain why a specific work or action by this person is important, how it could be studied by people with different perspectives, and what this person’s work could better help us understand about today’s society.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

The North Carolina Governor's School seeks to create a vibrant residential learning community on each of its two campuses during each session. What do you envision when you imagine a vibrant residential learning community? What contributions would you be able to make to that community? What limitations might you encounter in a residential community that you would not in a traditional school? Based upon what you described, explain why you wish to attend the North Carolina Governor's School. (LIMIT 3500 CHARACTERS)
