ALPS educators and advocates are currently meeting monthly to redesign The North Carolina Association of Alternative Educators (NCAAE) to best meet the need of its membership. Additional programming will kick off summer 2023. To join the monthly work sessions or if you have questions email fnash@rti.org.

North Carolina will be networking with other states in the southeast region, and we will share upcoming conference opportunities. Here is the first Save the Date, from the Georgia Association for Alternative Education (GAAE):
