Review New USDA Waivers Issued
The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) recently issued waivers (Child Nutrition Response #84-96) to provide flexibilities for schools through June 2022 to support safe reopening and healthy, nutritious meals. Please review the waivers posted on the USDA website. The N.C. Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI), School Nutrition will be reaching out USDA about questions and clarifications regarding the waivers. Stay tuned to the School Nutrition Update and plan to participate in upcoming Zone virtual meetings and Wednesday Webinars with School Food Authorities (SFAs) for more info. NCDPI, School Nutrition will be updating the Recap of Approved USDA Waivers in Response to COVID-19 to reflect the newly issued waivers.

Prepare for P-EBT Data Collection
Please be prepared to provide a file to the Testing Coordinator on the first business day of each month for the remainder of SY 2020-21. As with all reporting requirements, if the first falls on the weekend, the file will be due on the following Monday. The data collections are set for:

- Monday, May 3, 2021
- Tuesday, June 1, 2021
- Wednesday, June 30, 2021

Please note that if there have been no changes to students (through processing of a household application or direct certification) the June 30, 2021 will not be needed.

Submit Questions to be Answered During the Wednesday Webinars
Please submit any questions you have for the Wednesday Briefing for School Food Authorities (SFAs) via the online form. Answer the first two questions and then enter your questions one question per box. If you have more than ten questions, please click on the link to the form and submit your additional questions.

School Nutrition Spotlight

Shout Out to Swain County High Jr. Chefs Cooking for Superintendent
The N.C. Jr. Chef team from Swain County High had the opportunity to prepare and present their Shepard’s Pie with Sweet Potato Mash to Superintendent Truitt during her recent visit to Swain County. Way to go team! Hopefully, through travels across the state, the Superintendent will have the chance to meet our other talented N.C. Jr. Chef teams.
Check Out Schools Celebrating N.C. Farm to School Week
Schools across North Carolina celebrated N.C. Farm to School Week, April 19-23. The N.C. Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services (NCDA&CS), N.C. Farm to School Program shared highlights on social media of the farm to school activities in Craven County Schools, Carteret County Public Schools, Jones County Public Schools, and Pamlico County Schools. School systems highlighted North Carolina-grown products on their menus, featured farmers from which their School Nutrition Program sourced local agricultural products, and held activities to help students learn how food is grown, prepared and served. Craven County Schools students received a visit from a mobile dairy classroom and Ag Commissioner Troxler. Way to showcase “Got to Be NC”! Share with us how you are promoting farm to school.

Recognize Our School Nutrition Heroes!
May 7 is School Lunch Hero Day. Plan to recognize your local School Nutrition heroes for the amazing work they do nourishing children’s bodies, minds, and souls every day. Free recognition resources are available from the School Nutrition Association. Take a moment to learn more about the inspiration behind the day - watch the video from artist and author, Jarrett Krosoczka, and view his Ted Talk. Jarrett will also be hosting a live webinar at 1 p.m. ET May 7, and students can join in the fun!

Submit a School Nutrition Spotlight
We love lifting up our #NCschoolNutritionHeroes! If you know of a North Carolina School Nutrition team or professional that has received an award, honor or other recognition or should be spotlighted, please share for an upcoming School Nutrition Spotlight. Please send details to Tracey Bates, tracey.bates@dpi.nc.gov.

Nutrition Education & Promotion
