(1) Property records must be maintained that include a description of the property, a serial number or other identification number, the source of funding, who holds title, the acquisition date, and cost, percentage of Federal participation in the project costs, the location, use and condition of the property, and any ultimate disposition data.
(2) A physical inventory every two years.
(3) Safeguards to prevent loss, damage, or theft of the property. Any loss, damage, or theft must be investigated.
(4) Adequate maintenance procedures.
(5) Proper sales procedures, if applicable. |
| 200.318 General Procurement Standards (Documented Procurement Procedures) | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.318 | Sub-recipients must have and use documented procurement procedures, and procedures must be the same used for procurements from its non-Federal funds. Subrecipient must maintain oversight to ensure that contractors perform in accordance with the terms, conditions, and specifications of their contracts or purchase orders. Subrecipient must maintain records sufficient to detail the history of procurement, including: rationale for the method of procurement, selection of contract type, contractor selection or rejection, and the basis for the contract price. Contracts must be awarded only to responsible contractors possessing the ability to perform successfully under the terms and conditions of a proposed procurement. |
| 200.318 General Procurement Standards (Conflicts of Interest) | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.318 | Sub-recipients must maintain written standards of conduct covering conflict of interest and governing the actions of its employees and/or officers engaged in the selection, award and administration of contracts. These written standards must include that:
No employee, officer, or agent may participate in the selection, award, or administration of a contract supported by a Federal award if he or she has a real or apparent conflict of interest.
A conflict of interest would exist if:
The employee, officer, agent, any member of his or her immediate family or his/her partner engaged in the selection of a vendor but also had a potential financial or a tangible personal benefit created through the contract, including selecting an organization which employs or is about to employ any of the of the listed parties.
These written standards must also include that:
Officers, employees, and agents of the subrecipient must neither solicit nor accept gratuities, favors, or anything monetary value from contractors or parties to subcontracts. The written standards must provide for disciplinary actions to be applied for violations of conflict of interest or gratuities by officers, employees, or agents of the non-Federal entity.
If subrecipient has a parent, affiliate, or subsidiary organization, you must also maintain written standards of conduct covering organizational conflicts of interest. Organizational conflicts of interest means that because of relationships with a parent company, affiliate, or subsidiary organization, the subrecipient is unable or appears to be unable to be impartial in conducting a procurement action involving a related organization. |

1) all solicitations are conducted in a manner providing full and open competition;
2) Incorporate a clear and accurate description of the technical requirements for the material, product, or service to be procured. Such description must not, in competitive procurements, contain features which unduly restrict competition;
3) Identify all requirements which the offerors must fulfill and all other factors to be used in evaluating bids or proposals. |
| 200.320 Methods of procurement to be followed             | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.320 | Subrecipients must have and use documented procurement procedures, consistent with the standards in 200.318 and 200.319 for any of the following informal and formal methods of procurement used for the acquisition of property or services:
1) Micro-purchases
2) Small Purchases
3) Sealed Bids
4) Noncompetitive procurement
Current thresholds for each method, as stated in the 21st CCLC or ELISS Grant Guidance document, must be documented in the sub-recipients documented procurement procedures and updated as needed. |
| 200.430 Compensation - personal services                  | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.430 | Required written procedures must address how the subrecipient will document and ensure that all compensation is allowable (necessary, reasonable, and allocable) based on the services rendered in that they are 1) consistent with that paid for similar work in the labor market in which the subrecipient competes, 2) based on records that accurately reflect the work performed, and 3) is consistently applied to both Federal and non-Federal activities. |
| 200.431 Compensation - fringe benefits                    | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.431 | Fringe Benefits are allowances and services provided by employers to their employees as compensation in addition to regular salaries and wages, and include, but not limited to: the costs of leave (vacation, sick, etc.), employee insurance, pensions, unemployment benefit plans. The cost of fringe benefits are allowable if they are provided under established written leave policies, if the costs are equitably allocated to all related activities, and the basis selected for eligibility and costing is consistently followed by the subrecipient. |
| 200.475 Travel Costs                                      | https://www.ecfr.gov/on/2022-05-19/title-2/subtitle-A/chapter-II/part-200#200.475 | Required written procedures must address travel costs, which include the transportation, lodging, subsistence, and related items incurred by employees who are in travel status on official business. The basis for calculating travel costs must be documented and may be charged on an actual cost basis, on a per diem or mileage basis in lieu of actual costs incurred, or on a combination of the two, provided the method used is consistently applied to both Federal and non-Federal travel and consistently applied throughout an entire trip. Documentation must justify that participation of the individual is necessary and that the costs associated with the travel are reasonable and consistent with the sub-recipients established policies. Reimbursements made to staff for travel expenses must occur after the travel has been completed. |
